IRISH WAR ON BRITAIN WITH
GERMS BAREDTyphoid for Men and Glanders for Horses

BY JOHN STEELE.

(Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.)

LONDON, Nov. 18.—Sir Hamar Greenwood disclosed in the house of commons this afternoon a document found among the belongings of the chief of staff of the Irish "republican army" instructing his forces to spread typhoid germs among British troops and glanders germs among British horses.

Joseph Devlin engaged in a heated debate with Mr. Lloyd George and Sir Hamar, declaring the document to be a forgery.

Addressing the prime minister the Belfast member said:

"It is not a reign of law and order in Ireland, but a reign of murdering."

Known No Conspirator.

Mr. Lloyd George replied that he was unaware of any government conspiracy to murder in Ireland and that the government was out only to put down a gang of murderers. If twenty Protestant bishops in Ireland had signed a manifesto expressing horror and indignation at the manner in which law and order were being carried on, he declared, they could not possibly know the true facts.

Mentioned U. S. Conspiracy.

Charles White asked Mr. Lloyd George if he knew of the Irish reprisals inquiry being conducted in America and if the British ambassador at Washington had been requested to testify. The prime minister replied that he knew about the inquiry, and that so far as he knew the ambassador had not been asked to testify.

Mr. Lloyd George denied that he had declined to receive the deputation from the Irish peace congress who sought to get him to resign his office.

THREE DEAD AT CORK.

LONDON, Nov. 18.—[By the Associated Press.]—Three men were lying dead today in the Cork mortuary, while two others badly wounded were in hospitals as a result of several attacks last night on individual houses.

The first attack occurred near midnight when two former soldiers were dragged from their beds, one of them killed and one wounded. Later a civilian was called to his door, shot, and killed. Some time after midnight another civilian was shot dead and a former soldier wounded.

Art O'Brien, president of the Gaelic league in this city, authorized a statement last night that he had been threatened with death unless he "sided out" within twenty-four hours. He declared the warning was signed "Black and Tan" and had been dropped in a letter box at his office.

BEGIN CAPITAL HEARING

[BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.]

Washington, D. C., Nov. 18.—[Special.]—A midnight raid by the Royal Irish constabulary following the shooting of a police inspector, in the course of which ten houses and stores of townsmen were riddled, was described today at the first hearing before the committee of inquiry, composed of Miss Jane Addams, Senator Walsh of Massachusetts, F. C. Howe, and W. H. Murray, by Denis Morgan, chairman of the urban council of the town of Thurles, who arrived from Ireland yesterday.

The witness testified he was arrested by eight constables when he left his home Jan. 30 to attend an organization meeting of the town council. He said he asked with what offense he was charged, and the constabulary replied: "No charge; just government orders."

Tells of His Imprisonment.

He then gave a tale of his imprisonment at Thurles, of his transfer at night in lorries, with four companions, to America, and thence to Cork, where he was put on a battleship and transported to London, where he was confined with fifty-five other Irishmen in Wormwood Scrubbs prison.

He said he could appear on the witness stand in the daytime with safety, but not at night.

The measures taken place at night and at Thurles, he testified.

SEIZE "FOURTH
MAN" IN GRANT
PARK TRAGEDYShip's Cook Arrested in Sault Ste. Marie.

Duluth, Minn., Nov. 18.—A. M.—Michael Cox, alias James McCarthy, the ship's cook sought by the Chicago police in connection with the death of Marie Ramey and Lillian Thompson, actresses, in Grant park, Chicago, last Sunday, was arrested today when the steamer E. E. Loomis docked at Sault Ste. Marie.

(Chief of Detectives Hughes yesterday asserted that McCarthy was a mythical character created by the three men who are under arrest here for the purpose of shifting the blame for the women's death to McCarthy's shoulders.)

Cox admitted he was probably the man the Chicago police were looking for, but denied he had participated in the cabaret and automobile party which preceded the actresses' deaths.

He said he had met Miss Ramey and Miss Thompson on Saturday afternoon and had escorted them to their home on the north side.

At the women's residence, Cox asserted, they met two other men, and Cox declared he left the party. He denied having visited Grant park at any time.

When the Sault Ste. Marie police tried to induce him to be made specific Cox refused on the ground he wanted to "hear the other side of the story."

The cook admitted he was known in Chicago as McCarthy, and his description tallied exactly with that sent out by the Chicago detective bureau—even to a small scar on the neck.

MORE LIGHT ON DEATHS

Lieut. John Norton of the detective bureau continued his investigation of the death of Marie Ramey and Lillian Thompson, by questioning Ruth Williams and Martha Sheppard yesterday.

The girls met Lawrence Jorgensen, his brother, Harry, and their companion, Marcus Brumberg, after the latter had abandoned the actresses in the park. What they told him Norton declined to reveal—but admitted it would "make the going harder" for Brumberg and the Jorgensens.

Calls McCarthy a "Myth."

Chief of Detectives Hughes said that the case now stands about the "fourth man" in the automobile party that ended in the actresses' death, is a myth invented by the trio in custody as a scapegoat for the attack on the women in Grant park.

Lawrence Jorgensen has admitted taking the pocketbook of one of the women—destroying it after he learned they had died where they were abandoned. If a coroner's jury finds the men Chief of Detectives Hughes will seek to have them indicted for larceny.

Case Becomes More Sordid.

"The deeper you get into this," Chief Hughes said, "the more sordid and inhumane it appears. I don't take much stock in the story of the Good Samaritans trying to take these helplessly intoxicated women home. I believe they had the notion of attacking them in mind when they picked them up and finally picked out Grant park as a convenient place for their purpose."

"They didn't kill the women—didn't intend to, I'm convinced—but, nevertheless, they are responsible for their deaths. And one way or another I believe they will be punished."

One Shot, 18 Ducks Drop, and Hunter Goes Home

Dewitt, Ark., Nov. 18.—[Special.]—J. A. McMillan of Dewitt has been dubbed champion duck hunter as a result of having killed eighteen mallards at one shot. Twenty-five ducks to the man is the legal limit permitted under the Arkansas statutes for one day's hunt, hence Mr. McMillan gathered up his game lest he might exceed the legal limit.

LAST OF MOHICANS
VISIT WASHINGTON;
PRESENT LAND CLAIMS

Washington, D. C., Nov. 18.—[Special.]—The "Last of the Mohicans," three representatives of the tribe, came to Washington today from Norwich, Conn., to present claims to the government for certain valuable lands taken from them by the government.

Lemuel Occum Fielding, nominal chief of the survivors, headed the delegation. He was accompanied by his son, Everett M. Fielding, and his daughter, Mrs. Myrtle Germaline. They were clad in full Mohican regalia of brilliant hues and attracted much attention in government departments.

They first called at the Indian office, where they conferred with Otto Sells, Indian commissioner.

Although the Indians feel that the government owes them for their property, Chief Fielding said he felt sorry for the "great white father" and he sent to the White House a package of bonnet tea which he said would help to cure President Wilson of his long illness.

Vanish on Trip
U. S.-Havana

Havana, Nov. 18.—An airplane, carrying its captain, six passengers, lot and mechanic, which left Key West at 4:30 this afternoon for Havana, ordinarily a 40 minute trip, has failed to arrive and fears are entertained for its safety. A government submarine chaser has left Key West in search of the missing airplane.

According to messages received by the company which operates the sailing hydro-airplane the captain of the ferry boat Parrot reported passing the craft twenty miles south of Sand Key at 5 o'clock this afternoon.

MISS VAUCLAIN'S
RIBBONS LOST;
PONY IS BARRED

New York, Nov. 18.—Two blue ribbons awarded this week at the National horsemanship in Madison Square garden to Little Fire Lady, owned by Miss Patty Vauclean, daughter of Samuel Vauclean, head of the Baldwin Locomotive works, have been withdrawn, the National Horsemanship association announced tonight. A telegram sent to Miss Vauclean tonight at Broadview estate, Rossmore, Pa., by the association, says:

"It has been brought to our notice that your pony, Little Fire Lady, entered as a 4 year old, was shown in classes 148 and 151 and awarded the blue ribbon in both classes. Investigation shows that this animal is less than 4 years old, and therefore not eligible."

"We beg to inform you that our executive committee has decided to withdraw these blue ribbons and prizes and not to allow this pony to be shown in any other class at the show, and to bring the matter to the attention of the other exhibitors in the classes in which the pony was entered. Furthermore, the matter will be laid before the Association of American Horsemanship."

Rifle Fired by Accident;
Girl in Home Wounded

While sitting on the lap of her father in the window of her home last evening, Ruth Brock, 14 years old, 4782 Prairie avenue, suffered a deep scalp wound and the top of her left ear was torn off when a bullet from a rifle in the hands of John White, 35 years old, 228 East Forty-eighth street, struck her. The boy was exhibiting the rifle to some companions when it was accidentally discharged.

BIND WOMAN
IN HOME; TAKE
$25,000 BOOZEMrs. B. E. Veatch and Mother Face Guns.

Five liquor burglars visited the residence of Byron E. Veatch, 5119 Dorchester avenue, last night and drove away with $25,000 worth of whisky, champagne, and other high percentage liquor—all the stock the house contained.

Incidental to carrying out the raid they tied up one of the women of the household and cut the telephone wires so as to guard against immediate alarm.

It was the second attack upon the Veatch family's private stock within a period of three weeks. Attempt No. 1 was frustrated when Mrs. Veatch, hearing the prowlers, called the police and frightened them away.

Wife and Her Mother Alone.

Mrs. Veatch was formerly a wine merchant, being the Chicago representative of the Cresta Blanca company of California, but of recent months he has been dealing in grape juice. His duties for the last few days have taken him out of town. Therefore his wife and her aged mother were alone in the Dorchester avenue home when the thieves arrived last evening.

It was 7 o'clock. Both women were in the kitchen. Suddenly Mrs. Veatch heard the sound of footsteps overhead. She went upstairs to investigate.

"We're Government Officers."

There, in a bedroom, stood three men—all well dressed. The following conversation and action then ensued—as related later to the police by Mrs. Veatch:

"Who are you?" Mrs. Veatch inquired of the intruders.

"We are government officers," replied one without hesitation. "We're searching for the liquor which you have here."

"I don't know anything about it," parried Mrs. Veatch.

"Yes you do. Your husband has some whisky in this house and we want to get the numbers on the cases."

At this juncture Mrs. Veatch called their bluff.

"I don't believe you are government agents," she said evenly. "I think you are thieves."

Knocked Down and Bound.

Then the visitors rushed at her. She was knocked down and bound. One of the men was about to affix a tag.

"Don't do that," she pleaded. "I'll tell you where the liquor is kept if you don't gag me."

She gave directions. Two of the men were sent downstairs to bring up Mrs. Veatch's mother. She was so old and feeble that they did not bind her.

The two women were left in a bedroom while one of the men stood guard with a revolver.

Asks About Gun.

Before the other two departed to locate the booze they asked Mrs. Veatch where she kept her gun.

"What gun?" she asked them.

"The one you used before."

They were alluding to attempt No. 1. On that evening Mrs. Veatch, having heard the burglar alarm which sounded the cellar, called the Hyde Park police and then appeared at a window with a shotgun. As the detectives ran up she mistook them for the burglars and fired. Meanwhile the thieves escaped.

Truck Carries Away Booze.

Mrs. Veatch disclaimed any ownership of a weapon, but the thieves, evidently holding her in wholesome respect, searched for it. Then they began the job of removing $25,000 worth of rare liquors.

A whistle sounded. The next instant the throb of an engine was heard, and a heavy truck lumbered up the alley and stopped beside the door. Two confederates appeared. Quickly they moved the cases of booze. By 9 o'clock—two hours after the robbers had entered through a flimsy dining room window—the truck was gone.

Release Woman, Flea.

The burglars weren't entirely devoid of courtesy. Before the man on guard slipped downstairs to join his comrades on the machine he loosened Mrs. Veatch's bonds.

She ran to a phone. She tried frantically to call the police. The line was dead. The wires had been cut. By the time Mrs. Veatch finally got in touch with Jerry Vaughn, desk sergeant at the Hyde Park station, the $25,000 worth of booze was miles away. And the searching of Detective Sergeant Wood, Mulcahy, and Wragg failed to retrieve a single drop.

MAGIC DOOR ON
HARDING SHIP
OPEN AT SEA

(Copyright, 1920, By New York Tribune.)

ON BOARD S. S. PARISMINA, Nov. 18.—[By Radio via New Orleans.]—When the liner Parismina, bearing President-elect Harding to Panama, got three miles beyond the coast line, where the eighteenth amendment ceases to be effective, the chief steward unlocked the door over which hung a brass plate bearing the magic word "bar." There was a line waiting, but it did not include Mr. Harding, who remained on deck.

Senator Harding has been appointed editor of the marine edition of the Marion Daily Star, which is to be issued twice on the voyage. Gossip from Marion will be received by radio from Marion.

SHIP LIQUOR IS SEIZED.

New York, Nov. 18.—[Special.]—A search of the Ward Line Mexico at pier 14, East river, yielded forty-seven sacks of assorted bottled liquors. They were removed to the custom house. A woman had reported her husband bought liquor from one of the ship's crew.

Cuban Opens Booze Question.

Mobile, Ala., Nov. 18.—The master of a Cuban ship in this port applied to the United States treasury department for permission to bring enough liquor from Cuba to be served his crew during the return voyage. This may reopen the question of the right of foreign ships to have liquor aboard while in American ports.

AIN'T NATURE IN OUR BUSY LOOP
JUST WONDERFULMr. Sawyer Will Tell
the World It Is.

Himself a connoisseur and St. Louis, Mr. Edgar Sawyer of St. Louis was profoundly impressed upon entering the Pompano room of the Congress hotel yesterday with the infallible taste, the atmosphere of exclusivity which distinguishes the dietary adjunct of Peacock alley.

Mr. Sawyer, a prominent wholesale dry goods merchant of the Mississippi river metropolis, who likes water with his meals, was to be the guest of ten Chicago business men at a dinner. They were waiting for him over by the gushing fountain, whose pristine beauty needs no explanatory word in this fair village.

The Admiring Guest.

Mr. Sawyer, a stranger in our midst, followed the courtly head waiter to the expected host. Reaching the fountain, he paused in admiration of the many forms of marine life that gambol about the pellucid depths of the basin.

His fascinated eye saw the Japanese goldfish, undulating in self-conscious gracefulness; the domesticated red lobster, a man of family and upright character, busy with household cares against the miniature Elizabethan castle; the flock of trick eels; the baby alligator from the swamps of Florida; the—

A Little Faux Pas.

Mr. Sawyer's foot slipped. His piscatorial studies had led him too close to the slippery edge of the basin. His right leg suddenly shot forward, his left backed in a crouch. He was vainly, there was a loud splash.

Mr. Sawyer could not swim and his smartly tailored sack suit had not been equipped with water wings. For what seemed an eternity only a few bubbles marked the spot where he had gone down to join the snapping turtle asleep in the deep.

There is no life guard at the fountain, and the waiters are not equipped with fish hooks. They watched and waited for Mr. Sawyer to rise again. Forty soon a commotion became visible to the naked eye. Several paragraphs offshore a jet of water ascended. It was Mr. Sawyer. He was spouting. He had risen to view. In a faint voice, he gurgled:

"Help!"

Gregory Moran, chief of the house detectives, arrived. The Japanese goldfish had faintly and had to be carried away in a casket. More of Mr. Sawyer's person appeared.

"Get this damned snapping turtle off me," he cried.

Goodbye, Chicago!

Mr. Moran obtained a window pole and assisted him to terra firma. He resembled Neptune dressed for dinner. They squeezed him out, emptied his pockets of a school of minnows and a couple of eels, and conveyed him to his room. He had sent his luggage to the station, as he planned to leave for St. Louis yesterday afternoon.

His clothes were removed, laid on a radiator to dry, and Mr. Sawyer, remaining in seclusion throughout the afternoon, departed on a late train for St. Louis.

TAKES PLACE
OF AMERICA IN EUROPE DEALSGeneva Scouts New World League.

BULLETIN.

GENEVA, Nov. 18.—(United News.)—Lord Robert Cecil has won a complete victory over former Premier Viviani of France in Cecil's fight to throw open the assembly doors, its books, its reports, and its minutes to the scrutiny of the world.

Announcement of complete adoption of this policy was made first today by Hjalmar Branting of Sweden.

BY HENRY WALES.

(Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.)

GENEVA, Nov. 18.—Today a new power took its place on the active political map of Europe, and the seat up to now reserved for the United States at the conference table of the nations was taken by a figure untouched by the great war.

By one of the peculiar twists that appear in history this nation was Spain, our enemy of 1898, now rejuvenated with fresh aspirations.

Spain, said the official announcement today by the assembly of the league of nations, will join Great Britain, France and Belgium in policing the Vilna plebiscite zone during the ballot to determine whether that city will go to Lithuania or Poland.

Basis of League Army.

Not only does this new development seem to strengthen the unity of Europe, but Spain's offer of two infantry companies to act as a police force during the proposed plebiscite is perhaps a forerunner of the organization of the league's army. The French already have begun sending troops to Vilna and the Belgians have promised a detachment. The British today agreed to send a force.

Spain's action was the first of the kind. Heretofore allied troops have been exclusively used in plebiscite areas.

Col. Feyler, Swiss military expert, declares in the Journal de Geneve the league would be impotent without a standing army, citing the cases of Germany and Russia as proving the inefficiency of the naval blockade.

Against an Association.

The states represented in the league of nations will not consent to abandon the present organization and meet in America to organize a new association of the powers, as suggested by the American president elect, Senator Harding.

That is the apparent consensus of opinion gleaned after talking with delegates of great and little powers gathered here at the first league of nations assembly meeting.

Internal and international politics coupled with selfish interests and ambitions, will prevent a new association. The big powers expected to dominate the league through the assembly have heretofore through the league council. So sure were they of maintaining control that they failed to take the necessary precautionary measures in advance to assure agreement among themselves.

French Attack British.

stone, it is apparent that there is an antipathy to the United States in Latin America.

Flirt with Latin America.

The Latin republics might abandon the present league and convene in Spain, in Paris, or at The Hague, but they are loath to go to Washington. It was not for nothing that Spain, which did not break off diplomatic relations with the central powers, was invited to be represented in the league council to the exclusion of certain allied states. Spain was selected because her presence gave the council the confidence of the South American states.

Sixteen of the forty-two states in the league are from the western hemisphere and Great Britain is seeking to line them up behind her six votes and thereby obtain a majority in the assembly.

France is Disgusted.

Smarting under a series of parliamentary defeats and feeling that she is losing something of the prestige which she gained by her part in the war, France is disgusted with the league. She feels, however, that the treaty so inextricably ties up with the league that she cannot throw it up without abandoning the other.

France, too, feels pique through the lack of recognition accorded her. The growing use of the English language in the debates is proving irritating also.

With the Franco-American defensive alliance unratified and the Franco-English alliance therefore inoperative, France is anxious to have the United States in any league and is willing to make material concessions to that end. But the French feel that they are tied so they cannot make the first move. They look to Washington to take the initiative.

Japs and the English.

Japan and Great Britain, on the other hand, are against a "made in America" league. Japan fears that she would certainly lose again in her fight for race equality and the British feel as certain that never again will a British draft of the league be accepted.

Italy and Spain are apathetic. The former recalls President Wilson's attitude on the Adriatic question without pleasant memories of America and Spain cannot forget the war of 1898. Spain, too, wishes to hold the South American states instead of letting them slip to the side of the United States.

Both Italy and Spain fear they are slipping into the ranks of second class powers in the world league, and would eventually enslave Germany and Russia.

Good for Swiss.

The league, with its headquarters in Geneva, is proving to be a good business proposition for Switzerland, and hence there is no particular enthusiasm among the Swiss people for a reorganization which might mean a new site for the league's headquarters.

Holland, too, is jealous for reorganization might jeopardize the location of the high court of justice at The Hague.

The Scandinavian powers, however, might be willing to accept a new league as soon as the clique of minor powers which now controls the assembly fails to hold together. The Scandinavian powers conceive their role as that of a pivot between the allies and their former enemies as soon as one of the central powers has been admitted.

New States Favorable.

The newly created states of Czechoslovakia and Jugoslavia and the rest would welcome an American-made league.

Thus a review of the entire field indicates that the individual aims of the various groups, the powers' political ties, and the common desire to combine the league, and, finally, their ignorance of exactly what the United States wants, will prevent a scrapping of the present league of nations.

Blow to France.

French prestige suffered its most serious reverse this morning when no Frenchman was among the six addi-

LATEST LEAGUE PROBLEM

The allies have decided to send an army to Vilna to preserve order while the region votes to decide to whom it shall belong. Poland, Lithuania, and Soviet Russia have claims in the territory.

The Poles are reported to be withdrawing their troops. The arrow points to Vilna and the shaded area on the map indicates the land in dispute.

national vice presidents elected by the league of nations assembly. Although Rene Viviani made a strong bid for election and insisted on a second count of the ballots, a Brazilian was named instead.

The smaller nations, led by the Scandinavian trio and followed solidly by South and Central American countries, are making a determined effort to snatch control of the league from the big powers and, so far they have succeeded beyond their expectations.

Big Vote for Jap.

Vicount Ishii, the Japanese ambassador to France, received an overwhelming vote in the selection of the extra vice presidents, thirty-two of the thirty-nine ballots being cast in his favor.

H. A. Van Karnebeck of Holland, Honorable Puyredon of Argentina, Delegate Benes of Czechoslovakia, Sir J. E. Foster of Canada, and Roderigo Octavio of Brazil were the others elected.

The first ballot gave the first five named clear majorities, with Dr. Gaston Cunha, ambassador of Brazil, in Paris, sixth.

Paul Hymans, president of the assembly, suggested that Dr. Da Cunha be accepted as the sixth vice president in order to save the time an extra balloting would require.

Demands Second Ballot.

Chagrined because no Frenchman was among those elected, M. Viviani sprang to his feet and insisted upon a second ballot. Delegate Foster supported him and complained bitterly against the chair's proposed changing of the rules of procedure which had been adopted.

As the result of the second ballot Octavio was accorded almost a unanimous election, M. Viviani receiving only one vote.

Delegate Foster, the Canadian spokesman, is a stickler on fine points of order and continually he called President Hymans to order on parliamentary procedure. The gavel banged more often when the Canadians speak than at any other time.

This morning on motion of Tomaso Tullio of Italy, supported by Venezuela, Giuseppe Potta, president of the Swiss federation, was made honorary president of the assembly. Prof. Nansen, the Arctic explorer, read a report on the repatriation of war prisoners.

This afternoon commissions 3, 4, and 6 were sitting in camera. Tomorrow

RENEW CHARGES AGAINST LANG OF HAITI CRIMES

Gendarmes Testify at Federal Hearing.

BY EYE WITNESS.

[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.]

PORT AU PRINCE, Haiti, Nov. 18.—Testimony alleging that electricity was employed to torture prisoners into confession and the appearance of a dentist summoned from his chair in the marine barracks to be counsel for the former American marine against whom accusations of five "indiscriminate killings" now stand as features at today's naval court sitting.

These aspects are significant as indicating the mingled tragedy and opera bouffe of the five year American-Haitian adventure.

And the Band Played On.

The supreme ironical touch came when the Eighth Regiment band from home, during the most gruesome testimony today, began patiently rehearsing down in the sunbaked courtyard below the chamber where the court sits.

As the band played "I Dreamt I Dwelt in Marble Halls," Maratus Toussaint, a coal black young Haitian gendarme, swore he saw an American marine named Lang, then a lieutenant in the Haitian gendarmes, give a prisoner an electric current from the wireless station at Hinch to make him talk.

Whether the prisoner did talk the witness did not know, but he did know that he died two days later, whether from the effects of the current, though, he could not say.

The witness also said he saw Lang shoot down a prisoner with whom Lang had just been talking and who was not trying to escape.

Recalled to Stand.

Yesterday's witness, Adolph Bourgot, also a black gendarme, was reexamined for a solid hour today. He repeated with terrible explicitness the details given yesterday alleging that Lang shot three prisoners in their backs.

An expert but hectoring cross examination by the naval dentist, C. V. Rault, failed to shake or confuse the witness.

Judge Advocate Dyer was compelled to tell the dentist:

"You must frame your questions more carefully. You must not put words in the witness' mouth."

The witness affirmed and reaffirmed unflinchingly looking into the judge's eyes. Lang, garbed all in white, clean cut and erect, did not show nervousness except in apparent difficulty in drawing a full breath.

PARIS, Nov. 18.—The Petit Parisien reports from Geneva that one of the thorniest questions is that of disarmament, which was considered in camera this afternoon by the sixth commission.

"On the sea rivalry between England and the United States gives an indication of a practically unlimited increase of fleets, as well from the point of view of number as of power. The American navy is building six superb dreadnaughts and six battle cruisers, all armed with 14 and 16 inch guns.

"The British admiralty has not yet replied to this program which directly threatens its present superiority, but the fact it scraps or sells the greater part of its fleet shows its intention of building another capable of surpassing American squadrons. In such conditions can one speak of disarmament?"

TOO NEW TO BE COPIED

In my life time of shoe making I have never produced a shoe that so completely satisfied every demand for supreme style as this new "Resolute".

The last is new, the pattern is new, the color is new. The Resolute is too new even to be imitated.

It has all the swaggy brogue effect in the perforations on the toe, the pinkings on the upper and the stitching round the heel.

Yet this medium English toe and the long forepart of the Resolute are different from the heavy cut of the Regular Brogue.

Best of all Style doesn't add to the cost of Emerson Shoes. My policy of stamping the retail price on the sole at the factory based on the costs of materials and labor only, protects you against inflated prices.

Come in and look over our wide variety of smart new models. You will find a shoe you want at just the price you want to pay.

SEVERE WINTER IS PREDICTED FOR
U. S. JOBHOLDERS30,000 to Be Dropped at Capital Alone.

BY ARTHUR SEARS HENNING.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 18.—(Special.)—Thirty thousand superfluous government employees in the District of Columbia, whom the administration expected to keep on the pay roll during the presidential campaign, are to be eliminated by Congress this winter, according to Representative Wood of Indiana.

Mr. Wood returned to Washington today to begin hearings on the legislative, executive, and judicial appropriations bill by the house appropriations committee, of which he is chairman.

To aid the pay roll slashing he contemplates is only preliminary to a wholesale reduction of the force of employees throughout the country upon the reorganization of the government departments and bureaus by the Harding administration.

World Refund War Bonds. The congressman also joined the ranks of those legislators who advocate the refunding of government war obligations for a long period so that taxes may be greatly reduced immediately.

"I would issue new bonds refunding government obligations over a long period," said Representative Wood. "I would have this include not only the Liberty bonds but the short term treasury certificates of indebtedness and the Victory notes. The short term certificates are making lots of trouble in the banks and have helped to cause a depreciation in the value of Liberty bonds. I believe the situation will be helped by refunding all these obligations over a long period. I believe the necessary action should be taken to bear the load of the war expenses."

War Jobs Were Plentiful. There were 37,000 government employees in Washington before the war, 115,000 when the armistice was signed. There are now 90,000. Mr. Wood says the same amount of work can be done more efficiently by 60,000. In the entire country the number of civil employees rose from 450,000 before the war to nearly 800,000 at its close. Department heads are now asking for more employees whose salaries would total $14,000,000.

"All business firms nowadays are making cuts in their forces of from 10 to 25 per cent or more," said Mr. Wood. "I know one firm that made a cut of one-third and now gets the efficiency out of the two-thirds remaining than out of the original force. There is no reason in the world why the government should do the same thing."

Employees Fired; Get Back. The legislative executive, and judicial bill of last year we cut out nearly 40,000 employees. Department chiefs, however, managed to get thousands of them back on the pay roll by appearing before committees, such as the committee on military and naval affairs, which handle other appropriation measures. The net reduction in the number of employees thus far has only been about 20,000.

Representative Wood represents the northern Indiana district, which includes the Gary steel plants and other industries adjacent to Chicago. Mr. Wood said the business men of his district are clamoring for a reorganization of government departments and agencies.

Worries for Business Men. "It is getting so that business men are almost afraid to go to the postoffice for fear of receiving notice from various government departments to supply different sorts of information," said Representative Wood. "Sometimes two or three different departments want the same sort of information in a different way, and it is a problem for business men to furnish it."

"One of the chief tasks of the new administration should be to reorganize the numerous government departments, boards, and other scattering agencies. One of the best things that Gov. Lowden has done in Illinois has been to consolidate and reorganize state departments. Something of the same sort should be done in the government service. When that takes place we can make further economies that are not possible now."

N. Y. RAILROADS
ORDERED BY U. S.
TO BOOST FARES

I. C. C. Ruling May Affect Illinois Case.

(BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.)
Washington, D. C., Nov. 18.—(Special.)—Railroads operating within the state of New York were ordered today by the interstate commerce commission to increase, on or before Dec. 13, interstate passenger fares, excess baggage rates, milk and cream rates, and the level of interstate rates authorized by the federal commission in the advanced rate case. The effect of the order, therefore, is to advance intrastate passenger fares, baggage charges and rates on milk and cream 20 per cent, and to impose a surcharge of 10 per cent of the charge of space in Pullman cars.

Victory for Railroads.

The decision of the commission, upon which the order was based, constitutes a victory for the railroads in their contention that Congress intended the commission should remove discrimination against interstate commerce by statewide orders as to intrastate rates, and sets a precedent which it is believed the commission will follow in the Illinois intrastate rate case, as well as the numerous other states in which the same questions have arisen that were involved in the New York case. It was believed here tonight, however, that it would be necessary for the railroads in New York to go into the federal court for injunctions prohibiting state officials from preventing the order of the federal commission being operative, it being pointed out that the order of the federal commission is not binding on the state authorities.

Will Lead to Supreme Court.

There is no question but that the order of the commission will at once be made the subject of litigation which will lead to the United States Supreme court. The commission withheld action on the question of increasing commutation fares, reserving for future consideration that branch of the case. It held the record contained comparatively little evidence on the subject of commutation fares.

WASHINGTON NEWS
—IN BRIEF—

(BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.)
WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 18. REPRESENTATIVE WOOD of Indiana, member of the house appropriations committee, started work on the department appropriation bill which he said would eliminate 30,000 superfluous employees in Washington.

DENIS MORGAN of Thurles, Ireland, and three Americans who have visited Ireland within the last six months appeared today at the first hearing of the committee of inquiry headed by Miss Jane Addams.

SENATOR CUMMINGS said he hoped to have the next Congress enact the anti-strike provisions of the transportation act which the house defeated.

LINCOLN STEPHENS has joined a group of pacifists which is urging immediate recognition of the Mexican government.

The interstate commerce commission ordered the railroads operating in New York to increase intrastate rates to the same level as the increased interstate rates. This establishes a precedent to be followed in the case of Illinois and other states.

GERMANY'S PLAN TO CALL IN COIN
SENDS MARK UP

(Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.)
BERLIN, Nov. 18.—Remarkable fluctuations on the German money market with a 10 per cent rise in the value of marks, have followed the announcement that the government had decided to call in all paper money for the purpose of stamping it.

The chief purpose of stamping the currency is to find out the extent in which it is held in foreign countries. Money so held will be declared valueless unless it is presented to the authorities for stamping. This will prevent a larger part of the money speculation which is said to be undermining the German economic system. He also aims to prevent money smuggling.

No surprise was expressed over Herr Miller's recent statement in the Reichstag that a certain big bank has been organized solely to aid persons to convert their fortunes into foreign currency. That the Kaiser's family has changed millions of marks into dollars, pounds, and guineas is also known.

THE TRIBUNE'S exclusive statement yesterday on Germany's radical money plans caused a sensation in Berlin financial circles.

HARDING ROCKED

DEEP BLUE SEAGlad for Rest After Busy
Day in New Orleans.

BY PHILIP KINSLEY.

(By Wireless to New Orleans.)
On Board S. S. Parismina, 10 p. m., Nov. 18.—President Elect Harding after four hours of strenuous entertaining in New Orleans and a noisy ride of five hours, during which time he was chased by tugs and greeted with the whistles of every passing craft, reached South Pass at 10 o'clock, and in an hour will be rocking on the warm blue waters of the gulf, cut off from curious crowds and office hunters until he reaches the Canal Zone in five days. At the pilot station at the mouth of the river 100 tugs were put aboard for the senator, the gift of the Delta Duck club. His Thanksgiving turkey is in a coop on deck, the gift of the Harding girls' club of Morris & Co. of Chicago.

ALL NEW ORLEANS OUT

New Orleans, La., Nov. 18.—(Special.)—New Orleans, which gave President Elect Harding only 13,000 votes, made up for this political coldness today by giving the president elect a royal welcome when he arrived to go aboard the United States fruit steamer Parismina for his journey to the canal zone this afternoon. The senator sailed at 4:10 o'clock.

On the senator's arrival he found the streets were draped with flags. All the nobles of the city and state were out to escort him to the various places where he had agreed to speak. Crowds cheered him from the time of his arrival until his departure.

The Elks were out in force, with bands and marchers. The president elect made one address at the Elks' home, another on the steps of the city

FOOTBALL WINS;
TEA DANCES ARE CALLED OFF AT N. W.

When John C. Tucker, Harry King, and Charles Ortenburger, representing the student council of Northwestern university, called upon Miss M. B. Pierce, 1214 Michigan avenue, Evanston, yesterday afternoon, she agreed that she would hold not more afternoon tea dances at the North Shore hotel during the football season. Football rosters protested against the dance tomorrow afternoon. They feared it would cut the attendance at the game with Notre Dame.

hall, where many thousands were gathered, and a third, his chief message to the people at this time, was delivered at a luncheon at the Hotel Grunewald, given by the chamber of commerce.

Stop at Vera Cruz Canceled. Steamship men at Baton Rouge informed the senator that he could not stop at Vera Cruz to see President Elect Obregon of Mexico, as he was inclined to do, without extending the voyage three days and making it impossible for him to be in Bedford, Va., on Dec. 6, as he had promised. So Senator Harding probably will have to give up seeing Gen. Obregon for the sake of his old pal in the Elks' home at Bedford.

In his address before the chamber of commerce Senator Harding called for renewed faith in the stability and in the dependability of business conditions of the country and pointed out the straight road to follow in order to arrive at this destination the more surely.

"We will win," was the keynote of this address, which was a confident re-assertion of the greatness of America. Plenty of Trade Near Home.

At the gateway of Latin-America he voiced one more his belief that in this hemisphere, rather than in the old world, lies the special field of American influence and trade.

"Our trades by sea to the south ought to be as dependable as our rail routes at home," he said, "and there ought to be significant and reassuring comity and concord among Americans south, central, and north. Bind our friendship with the ties of trade and we shall make it indissoluble."

We have evolved here a new term, "popular-classic." This is the kind of music we know parents believe in. It is music which is not only good in itself but which is so charming in melody and in form that it has secured world-wide acceptance. "Humoresque" is a good example. "Narcissus" is an American popular-classic. Then every child should know "To a Wild Rose," "To a Water Lily," and other fascinating compositions of our own great MacDowell.

LONDON HUSTLES DEAL WITH REDS FOR RUSS TRADE

BY JOHN STEELE.
[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.]
[Copyright, 1920: By The Chicago Tribune.]
LONDON, Nov. 18.—Arthur Balfour, chief British delegate to the league of nations assembly, who has been detained here by illness, leaves tomorrow for Geneva. Prime Minister Lloyd George, who has been urged to stand, promised to go if his presence really was required, but was unwilling to do so otherwise because no other minister of equal authority would be present. He feels his presence therefore would be resented by the delegates from other countries. No decision was arrived at, and I am told it is unlikely that he will go.

The British cabinet today approved the draft of an agreement for resumption of trade with Russia, and the draft will be dispatched to Moscow for signature in a few days. This means that if the soviet really wish to trade commerce should be reopened in a few weeks.
Triumph for Liberals.
This decision is a triumph for the liberals in the cabinet over the reactionaries, who fought to the last for imposition of impossible terms on Russia. The chief of these was that Russia pay immediately all the carizat debt.
The liberals, of whom Mr. Lloyd George, Bonar Law, and Sir R. B. Horne are the leaders, insisted that if Great Britain really wanted to trade she must recognize the facts of Russia's internal condition and conform to them.
The draft of the agreement was little changed from the version published a month ago. Russia is required to release all prisoners, which she has done, recognize private debts, and promise to refrain from revolutionary propaganda abroad.

Debt Question Reserved.
The question of public debt is reserved for general peace discussions, which it is hoped will follow soon after resumption of trade.
Mr. Lloyd George thus again has won a triumph over his own reactionaries by using labor as a threat.
Council action forced open another door by strengthening the premier's hands to carry out the policy he already had decided on. The premier made a short announcement of the agreement in the house of commons this afternoon, but refused discussion of the details.
Asquith Busy Again.
The Liberal Asquith members of parliament at a meeting in London today endorsed the Asquith policy for full dominion home rule for Ireland, including adequate safeguards for the strategic security for Great Britain. This is merely a pious expression of opinion, as the Liberals are too few to exercise any weight on parliament.

BRITAIN DENIES CREDIT HELP TO NEW GREEK RULE

ATHENS, Nov. 18.—[By the Associated Press.]—Parliament will be convened tomorrow and Queen Mother Olga will then take the oath of regent.
Great Britain has notified Premier Rallis that it will refuse a credit guarantee for a new bonding issue amounting to 400,000,000 drachmas (normally $77,000,000).
Former officers and civil servants under King Constantine are being re-instated as the Venizelists resign office.
It is expected Gen. Nider will be the new commander of the army.

If the Balkan balance is upset it is anticipated the Serbs will seize Saloniki.
Venizelos Is Not Better.
Former Premier Venizelos before leaving Greece issued a message to the Greek people telling them he was without bitter feeling toward them because of their decision to overthrow his government. M. Venizelos' destination is Nice, where his son, Sophocles is to marry Mlle. Zervoudaki, a wealthy young Greek woman.
The Patrie and other Venizelist newspapers appeared today in mourning, saying that the country had been turned over to the Germans and predicting Venizelos would be recalled by the people within six months.
Greek Cabinet Announced.
LONDON, Nov. 18.—The Greek legation announced today that the new Greek cabinet formed by George Rallis was as follows:
GEORGE RALLIS, premier, minister of foreign affairs and of justice.
M. BALEDRIS, minister of interior and of communications.
NIKOLA KALOGEROPOULOS,

VALPARAISO U. BANQUET.

CHINESE ARMY MENACING U. S. FAMINE RELIEF

Fear Hungry Troops May Seize Supplies.

BY CHARLES DAILEY.

(Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.)

(Copyright 1920: By The Chicago Tribune.)

STENTIN, Nov. 18.—The presence of Gen. Bao Kun and his army at Peking, on the edge of the famine stricken area, together with his recent seizure of horses and provender, causes some uneasiness as to the safety of American relief supplies sent up the Puto river destined for Anping. In addition to a small guard of fifteen Chinese soldiers, which will be less than one for each two boats after the cargo has been transferred at Ten River, American, and British flags, while every boat flies the flag of the Chinese Famine Relief association, which is a white cross on a blue field. Each boat also carries a pass exempting it from "Likin Taid," a sort of graft, practiced by each small magistrate on the upper reaches of the river.

Block Railway Traffic.

French Jesuit missionaries operating in this district say that Gen. Bao Kun's army is meeting with difficulty in getting supplies, owing to the divided nature of the county. Factional warfare in Chihli is in such a state that a new movement of large bodies of troops appears imminent. Railway traffic already has been disrupted. The famine stricken portion of Shan-shing, north of the Yellow river, is being handled by the American Red Cross operating from Tachow. Distribution of food has not begun, but it is proposed to issue rations in return for road building along the line of the proposed canal.

The Peking relief committee includes John Hayes of the Presbyterian mission and D. W. Edwards of the Y. M. C. A., both Americans. They will cover the district served by the Peking-Hankow railway. It is agreed that this railway cannot handle more than the grain needed for the stricken area to which it is assigned.

The Hsian district will be covered from Hankow.

The Peking relief committee, which will handle all American supplies sent to Chihli gulf ports and will cover the district served by the Tientsin-Pukow railway, the Puto river, and the canals. The Rev. Frank B. Turner, a British Methodist, is vice chairman and the active brains of the Tientsin committee.

Horror of Famine.

In my district 4,000,000 persons are reduced to eating grass, willow leaves, cover shoots, and the like," said Dr. Turner. "Many families, unable to face the situation, are poisoning themselves. One father recently brought home food and his children remarked it was the best meal they had enjoyed in many months. In a few hours all were dead. The father had decided to end it all by sprinkling arsenic in the food his last coppers had bought."

Unfortunately China is still in arms. On the very edge of the famine districts troops are camped. The government is being criticized severely for taking no definite action to relieve the famine conditions while at the same time it was increasing its armies.

The ministers at Peking are plotting and maneuvering for supremacy and the president remains in deep seclusion, powerless and ignored by the ministers. Because of the government's regulations of rolling stock for its armies, railway cars are not available to move grain from Manchuria, where a patriotic British shipping firm offers its services free of charge in buying grain and supervising its shipment by rail to the famine zone.

Chinese Are Inactive.

The Chinese themselves have done but little in the matter of relief work, though some leaders are making a show in this direction by keeping their eyes open to the political advantage gained thereby. China is in much of a muddle politically and all the various

HORROR SHIPS TRAIL WRANGLER INTO BOSPORUS

BY LARRY RUE.

(Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.)

(Copyright 1920: By The Chicago Tribune.)

CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 18.—All day and tonight the Bosphorus presented scenes of indescribable suffering, of frantic people crying for food and water.

There were more than forty boats, comprising the whole gamut of shipping from sidewheelers to three masted, packed with refugees which even filled the harbors.

Heads were thrust from portholes to get a breath of fresh air. The decks were so crowded it seemingly was impossible to lie or sit. Many boats did not have water and sanitary conditions were unspeakable. Already disease is spreading and two typhus deaths are reported. Four hundred sick children were in one of the boats.

The arduous are lying in quarantine waiting for designation of a permanent refuge camp which has not been decided on at present when every moment's delay causes untold suffering. Rowboats in the Bosphorus continually were hauled by the occupants and asked to take letters to notify friends in Constantinople. Several pathetic letters begging something to eat were received by Americans here from the best Russian families. All relief work is under French supervision. The wounded are accommodated here, food being donated by the French Red Cross.

REDS FORCE POLE PRISONERS INTO BOLSHEVIK RANKS

(Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.)

PARIS, Nov. 18.—The Polish delegation at Riga has been informed from a good source that the bolsheviks are organizing at Smolensk an army in which they are enrolling by force as alleged volunteers Polish prisoners who enter the ranks to escape hunger and the horrors of captivity.

The Reds have christened this forced army the "Polish revolutionary army," and it is commanded by former czarist officers. The Polish delegation has energetically protested before the Russian Riga delegation against this violation of the recent agreement preliminary to peace.

To Aid Starving

The English language press is bitter in its attacks on the politicians, emphasizing their inactivity and advocating a loan through the new consortium, but against this step the nonpolitical Chinese advise strongly.

Money only would afford more opportunity for graft, they warn, and they urge that actual grain be sent consigned in care of the international committee.

Even some members of these committees are under suspicion owing to Chinese participation thereon.

Cooperation Needed.

Until the arrival of food shipments from Manila, no actual aid can be given the famine victims beyond that doled out by the government, which dwindle pitifully in handling, and the smaller relief of missions and societies. But all this scattered effort was serving no real end until Maj. Wiley arrived with his supplies as the personal representative of Gen. Kernan and the Manila citizens' time and that of the committee was chiefly spent in collection of data and devising ways and means.

Maj. Wiley insisted that the Manila shipment be applied directly to the sufferers in the form of a continuous supply. After looking over the ground for three tireless days he decided the Tientsin committee was in the best shape. His decision was approved by United States Minister Crane, the Chinese cabinet, and by all others to whom the plan was submitted.

BANK OF FRANCE WITHDRAWS AID FROM MERCHANTS

(Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.)

PARIS, Nov. 18.—French business, both wholesale and retail, is on the verge of a crisis as a result of a buying slump and the refusal of the Bank of France to discount trade bills after the first of the year.

Both wholesale and retail firms have been notified that they would not be carried longer and it is expected that they meet their paper with currency after Jan. 1. As a result they are endeavoring to the utmost to obtain ready money through forced sales, price cutting, and the calling in of outstanding accounts.

This is only carrying out the policy of M. Francois Marsal, the minister of finance, to reduce heavily inflated values, thus enhancing the value of French currency.

Through the currency reform he hopes to obtain an immediate lowering in the cost of living. In this he is apparently succeeding, for within the last week there has been a great cut in the cost of wearing apparel and a slight reduction in the price of foods and wines.

S. McClatchy, its publisher.

CAPITAL DENIES SECRET PACT TO INJURE MEXICO

Treaty 'Made in Germany,' Official Belief.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 18.—Publication in Mexico City today of what purported to be the text of a treaty between the United States, Great Britain, and France, signed in 1917, and dealing with certain rights claimed by those countries in Mexico, brought prompt official denial from the state department of the existence of any such pact.

Officials at the department were inclined to believe the published text was that of a false treaty prepared during the war by Germany for propaganda purposes in Mexico. There had been, they said, previous indications of the circulation of this false document.

The statement that one clause of the alleged treaty provided for certain measures to meet possible Japanese hostility was noted particularly and characterized at the department as being as foolish as it was false.

Hint at Verbal Understanding.
On the other main subject dealt with in the spurious pact, continuation of the flow of oil from Mexican wells owned by nationals of the three powers, it was regarded as conceivable that some sort of informal understanding might have been reached by the three governments, necessitated by the exigencies of war. It was said officially, however, that nothing of the kind had been reduced to writing.

The suggestion that a written agreement existed was made last month in the Mexico City press, a statement to that effect being attributed to Hilario Medina, acting minister of foreign affairs in the Carranza cabinet.

It was promptly denied by Cuthbert Hildalgo, holding a similar post under the present provisional government in Mexico, and who declared Medina had brought about publication of a statement he knew to be false for the purpose of embarrassing friendly relations between the provisional government and the United States.

Americans Flee Coahuila.
Eagle Pass, Tex., Nov. 18.—The situation in the coal mining area of the Mexican state of Coahuila, where striking miners have taken charge of seven mines, has become critical, and Americans are arriving here from the affected area by train and automobile, having been advised to leave the district by Gov. Luis Gutierrez. The Coahuila governor told the Americans he anticipated trouble in view of the government's determination to take charge of the situation.

One of the Americans arriving here characterized the action of the miners as "savoring of bolshevism."

"It is the wave of bolshevism that is sweeping the world, and which has just swept Mexico," he said.

ILLNESS OF FORMER GERMAN EMPRESS TAKES SERIOUS TURN

The former crown prince has been called to her bedside, though there is no immediate danger.

U.S. TOO STRONG FOR JAPS, SAY TOKIO STUDENTS

TOKIO, Nov. 18.—[By the Associated Press.]—Two thousand university students met here tonight to discuss the question:

"Shall Japan fight America?"

The debate lasted four hours and was marked by vehement talk. The audience remained in good humor.

The managers of the meeting decided not to take a vote on the case as presented by the speakers. Apparently the audience was equally divided. Speakers taking part in the debate agreed that the action of California in legislating against Japanese ownership of land in that state furnished a sufficient cause for hostilities. They differed, however, concerning the expediency of war.

Many pointed out that America's wealth and preparedness contrasted with Japan's weakness.

One student said if Japan attacked America other white races might combine against Japan. The orator students praised America's past friendliness for Japan, but added:

"Now that Japan is grown up, America is tired of it."

FIRE DRIVES OUT SIX FAMILIES.

DRY AGENTS RAID McGOVERN'S; HALT CABARET REVELS

Seize Beer and Whisky in "Immune" Bar.

Frank D. Richardson, Chicago's new dry chief, started his first day's work with a rush yesterday, seizing twenty barrels of beer and a quantity of whisky in a raid on McGovern's "Liberty Inn," a cabaret at North Clark and Erie streets.

Because of the absence of the proprietors when the raiders reached the place shortly after 7 o'clock, no arrests were made. It was announced, however, that warrants would be issued for John and William McGovern today.

First intimation that the notorious cafe was the target of the dry forces came to the place when three men swung up to the cabaret in a truck. "Back in here," said big Potter, leader of the raiders, pointing to a basement door on the Erie street side.

The grailings over the basement entrance were jerked up. A moment later somebody boosted a barrel out from the basement door. The clinking of glass was heard.

"Why it's a raid," said the man who knows "Dairymple's men."

More than 500 eager sightseers crowded around the truck and the dry agents while the trucks were loaded.

Gay Evening Halted

The crowds were just beginning to collect at McGovern's place for an evening of hilarity. Three men smoked lazily over their beer.

Scantly dressed girls were preparing to dance in the spotlight. A few couples were seated at the tables in the cabaret. Waiters hurried here and there. The jazz orchestra twanged carelessly. The cabaret was tuning up.

Suddenly two men vaulted over the bar in the front room. A girl screamed. The raid was on.

The raiders sang as they rolled away in the truck toward the government bonded warehouse. Inside the man at the piano began Chopin's "Funeral March."

Grill West Side Man.

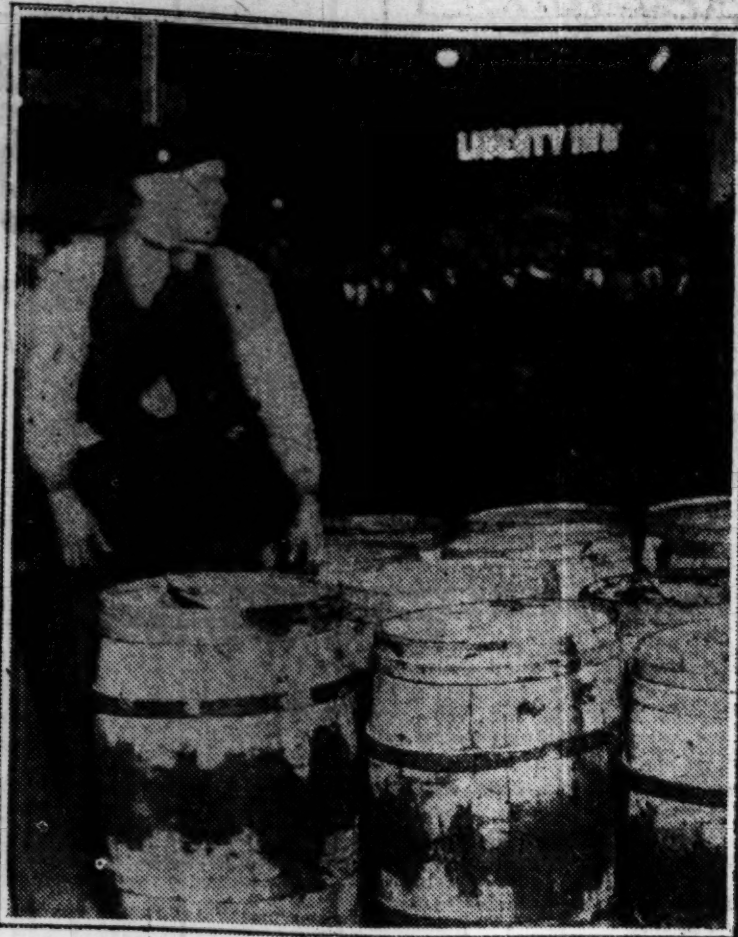

Discovery of new evidence in the Heitler $200,000 liquor ring which is expected to add additional names to the long list of saloonkeepers and policemen already facing indictment by the federal grand jury was announced yesterday by Assistant District Attorney Kelly.

The announcement followed a two hour grilling of Max Wagman, owner of the Curtis Gardens, Madison and Curtis streets, and an important political figure on the west side, who was arrested Wednesday evening with two cases of the Heitler whisky. It is reported that Wagman confessed, naming the men from whom he obtained the whisky, but Mr. Kelly refused to verify this.

Jamaica Ginger Under Ban.

Commissioner John F. Kramer issued

SEIZED IN CABARET RAID

Beer taken from McGovern's "Liberty Inn" by dry agents last night.

An order forbidding the sale of tincture of ginger, whether sold as Jamaica ginger or extracts of ginger or whatever name it might be known by, except through a physician's prescription, the same as whisky is sold. The order classifies it as an alcoholic preparation for use as a beverage.

The ruling will be effective in ninety days, R. W. Stone, prohibition director, said last night.

BRILLIANT BALL TO MARK SMALL'S INAUGURATION

French Lick, Ind., Nov. 13.—[Special.]—The inauguration of Len Small as governor of Illinois will be one of the greatest Republican demonstrations ever staged in the state. State Chairman Frank L. Smith will decide on the question of a ball, probably to be held on the main floor of the state capitol.

There has been no great inaugural ceremony at Springfield since the induction into office of John R. Tanner in 1896. The Small inauguration, as now planned, is to be more elaborate than that one.

By way of comment Mr. Small said that if all of the applicants for state jobs attend the inaugural there should be a record breaking crowd. Applications for appointments, he said, are pouring in upon him at his home in Kankakee at the rate of 100 a day.

$3,000,000 MAIL CAR BANDITS GET $50; BURN BONDS

Omaha, Neb., Nov. 18.—[Special.]—

The big robbery of the treasure car of the transcontinental fast mail last Saturday has been solved. It was engineered by a 17 year old boy and his accomplices were all less than 20 years of age.

Three of the robbers are under arrest and have confessed. The fourth robber has not been arrested. He is an Omaha taxicab driver and his capture is only a question of time, the federal authorities say.

Big Part of Loot Recovered.
More than $2,300,000 of the Saturday robbery loot has been recovered, in the report of the postal agents. One of the men under arrest in his confession said he burned $800,000 in bonds in the kitchen stove at his home. The taxicab driver sought by the federal men carried off four of the cars know the contents they are not making the information public.

Fred Poffenberger is the young robber who confessed to having burned $800,000 in the kitchen stove. Poffenberger came in and gave himself up even before his accomplices had implicated him in the robbery.

Fearing the "Third Degree."
The newspaper reports of the third degree having been administered to Merl Phillips so worked on his mind that he went to his father and confessed his part in the crime. The father took his son to headquarters and surrendered him to the officers.

The Poffenberger Confession.
The Poffenberger confession is signed and in the keeping of the postal officials. In it the youth goes into the details about the burning of the bonds.

"They were Liberty bonds," he told the agents. "We couldn't use them. So I took them home with me, built a fire in the kitchen stove and stuck them in a handful at a time. They burned beautifully. It took me half an hour to burn them. The stove got real hot. They were in different denominations. Two or three times I had to take out ashes, they were so thick and made so much smoke."

Orville Phillips, the 17 year old brother of Merl Phillips, the first mail robber to be arrested and the first to confess, was the engineer of the robbery. It was Orville Phillips who entered the treasure car and threw out the sacks containing the millions. He has made a confession of the affair. He came to the federal building and asked for an officer.

Lad Accepts Responsibility.

"I am Orville Phillips, brother of Merl," he told the officers. "I came here to give myself up. I was the one responsible for the mail robbery. My brother is trying to shield me."

"Fred Poffenberger and I pulled the man on the automobile. After we threw the bags out the man in the automobile took four and drove away. We then found we were alone with the other sacks. We decided to hide them. Later, we burned the contents in the kitchen stove at Fred's house. We got frightened when he heard that Merl had confessed."

The young robbers, according to their confession, have just $40 in cash to show for their crime.

"We got only $40 in cash," Poffenberger told the officers. "There was one bill of $50. We were afraid to attempt to pass that, so we threw it away. That left us about $40."

Deal with a Stranger.
The three boys say they do not know the name of the taxicab driver sought by the federal agents, but gave a good description of him. When asked why they trusted a man whose name they did not know Poffenberger said:

"Well, we were taking chances anyway, so we thought we would take one more."

The boys met the stranger in a local poolroom.

Authorities are acting on the theory that the boys did not burn all the bonds but that they are telling that story to throw the officers off the track. The two boys had several days in which to hide the bonds.

Mrs. Poffenberger, mother of the young robber, says her son did not burn the bonds at her house the night of the robbery.

ONE DEAD, 2 TO PRISON, ONE COP'S TOLL OF ROBBERS

Policeman Joseph Fogarty's battle with three bandits was recalled yesterday when a jury voted sentences of from ten years to life for James Lee and Thomas Mulligan, charged with an attempt to rob with revolvers. On the night of July 5 Fogarty, in plain clothes, was playing cards in the poolroom at 44 North Wells street. James Mullaney, Lee, and Mulligan entered and ordered everybody to hold up their hands.

Fogarty drew his revolver, killing Mullaney. Lee and Mulligan were captured.

CON VOTES COURT MERGER FOR CHICAGOANS

Hopes to Make Machinery
More Simple.

Chicago, Ill., Nov. 18.—The abolition of city courts, police magistrates, and juvenile judges from the judicial system of the state were the main features of the judicial report as adopted by the constitutional convention today. The main change, affecting Cook county, was the consolidation of the superior, circuit and county courts of Cook county, and the new court of Cook county to be presided over by forty-two judges. Another feature adopted would confer power on the courts to prescribe their own rules of pleading and practice, thus simplifying both in the interest of eliminating delays. Scope of Proposed Courts. The circuit court would have original jurisdiction in all causes at law and in equity and also jurisdiction in probate matters. The criminal court of Cook county and the municipal court of Chicago were consolidated into what would be known as the district court of Cook county, to have jurisdiction in all criminal cases and civil right to act in contract and tort cases when amounts over $1000 are involved. This court would consist of thirty-five judges to hold sessions in all cities, villages, and towns in Cook county. Choosing Chief Justices. The district and circuit courts each would have a chief justice, to be appointed by the state supreme court. Justices of the peace in Cook county would be appointed by the chief justice of the district court. Another provision in the report states that judges of all state courts must have been admitted to the bar. The matter as to whether there should be more or nine members in the supreme court will be taken up when the delegates convene next week. The minority report favors nine judges and the majority seven. If there are to be nine there will come from Cook county. The fee system for justices of the peace would be abolished and in each county the board of supervisors would fix the justices' salary. All fees collected by justices would be sent to a district attorney to be fixed by the legislature. Chicagoans Leads Fight. Delegates favoring the report as submitted were led by Frederick De Mun of Chicago. In abolishing the office of judge of the probate court, the delegates decided that in counties other than Cook the county judges would take over the work. In Cook county the circuit court would act in that capacity. Provided was made that counties with a population of 75,000 may assume the election of a second county judge if the general assembly deems it a law necessary.

RETAIN DIRECT PRIMARY SYSTEM, HUGHES URGES

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 18.—Charles Evans Hughes advocated retention of the direct primary system in making party nominations for offices to states and lesser political units, in an address here tonight before delegates to the convention of the National Municipal league of which he is president. Mr. Hughes summed up the advantages of the direct primary system in two arguments. "First," he said, "it places a weapon in the hands of the party voters which they can use with effect in case of need. They are no longer helpless. This has put party leaders on their best behavior. It is a safeguard to the accurate and unimpaired leader who is endeavoring to maintain good standards in the with sound public sentiment. It favors a disposition not to create situations which are likely to challenge a test. "Second—The fact of this control gives to the voters a consciousness of power and responsibility. If things do not go right they know that the trouble lies with them. The importance of this assurance should not be overlooked in any discussion of the apathy of the electorate."

Minister Boose Inspector Must Face Murder Trial

Toronto, Can., Nov. 18.—Through a decision announced by Attorney General Raney today the Rev. J. O. L. Spracklin, minister and license inspector, who killed Beverly Trumble during a raid on Trumble's hotel at Sandwich, will have to stand trial for the shooting despite the fact that a coroner's jury decided the minister acted in self-defense.

TIRE DEALERS FORESAW SIEGE OF NONBUYING

BY J. L. JENKINS.

Akron, O., Nov. 18.—[Special.]—Unless the striking public is capable of extending its siege against buying well into the summer automobile tires may not be expected to drop lower in price during 1921. Akron generals in the rubber industry are matching the purchasers' "strike" day by day with a curtailment policy exactly in proportion to the reduced demand. They have succeeded in reducing since June the overproduction in auto tires to a point where there are now between ten and eleven million tires in the national inventory, including retail, wholesale, and storage stocks. Today's supply will equip every motor vehicle in the country with one and one-fifth spare tires, and the rubber barons grimly point out that this is November, and at least one rear on Uncle Sam's competition machine is ready to "blow."

Working Force Reduced.

The method of production curtailment in the mammoth industry is simple. The great plants began about June a 50 per cent reduction in working forces and finished tires over a six months' period of time. They started slowly and quietly some two months ahead of other industries. Today the factories, dominating as they do this protesting town, are out to the bone.

Some are closing down altogether several days each week to meet the average. Some are splitting the work in other ways. Like the automobile makers, tire men have weeded out their workers until the steady, American married men, the employe stockholders, and the best of the skilled workers alone are left on the job.

Thousands Leave Akron.

As a result, between 25,000 and 30-000 people have left Akron, according to tire manufacturers, whose figures show that 87,000 were employed in all city factories at the "peak" of the good times. Rents are coming down and all business is hit hard.

Business men in Akron admit freely the slump has struck forcibly, but declare that unemployment is overestimated. Employment agency books show between 600 and 700 men daily asking for jobs, instead of the hundred thousand rumored.

Goodyear reports show the company is making as many tires now as it did during the same period in 1914. Eight thousand men worked in the plant on one day this week and 10,000 tires were turned out. Bank clearings for twelve months ending Nov. 1 show
$389,000,000, as against $421,000,000 in 1919 and $44,000,000 in 1910, although deposits dropped $3,000,000 this year.
The big plants, such as Firestone, Goodrich, Goodyear, and Miller, are said to be weathering the financial storm without danger. Recent financing has left them with sufficient funds to tide over the slump and force a return to normal in the tire market.

TWO NEGRO MEN, 1 NEGRO WOMAN, SHOT BY A MOB

Douglas, Ga., Nov. 18.—Two Negro men and one Negro woman accused of implication in the killing of Pearly Harper, were shot today by a mob of more than 150 men who overpowered

Sheriff Tarter and two deputies and took the prisoners away from them.
An attempt was made last night to storm the jail where the Negroes were held, but the crowd dispersed after listening to an appeal by Sheriff Tarner to allow the law to take its course.
Early today the sheriff decided to transfer the prisoners to Fitzgerald and started in an automobile. The mob organized and the shooting followed.

CHEER UP! SUGAR, ROLLED OATS AND CORSETS DROP

BY ARTHUR M. EVANS.

Prices cracked a bit more in spots yesterday. One line of building material registered a break. The Barrett company, dealers in composition and prepared roofing, posted an announcement of a 10 to 25 per cent cut in the price of their commodities. The drop follows the recent slump in the price of raw, according to Ralph Barrett, manager of the concern and president of the Prepared Roofing association.

"I look for other companies to follow suit," Mr. Barrett said. "At a recent meeting of the association the general opinion was that the price of roofing was too high, but individually the concerns represented were reluctant to take the first step."

Rolls Oats Declines.
A reduction of 17 per cent in the wholesale price of rolled oats was announced by the Armour Grain company. The price has moved upwards steadily since July, 1918, and yesterday's drop reflected the recent decline in oats.

Officials of the company said twenty-five packages, which have been retailing at 18 or 19 cents, should in a few weeks go over the counter at 15 to 16 cents, as grocers and jobbers, expecting a decline, have not put in large stocks of package cereals.

Sugar, wholesale, joined the procession. Eastern refiners in general dropped half a cent a pound, bringing the price to 9 1/2 cents, with 2 per cent off for cash, the lowest figure so far. In recent days a few sales had been made at this figure, but the quotations were not general.

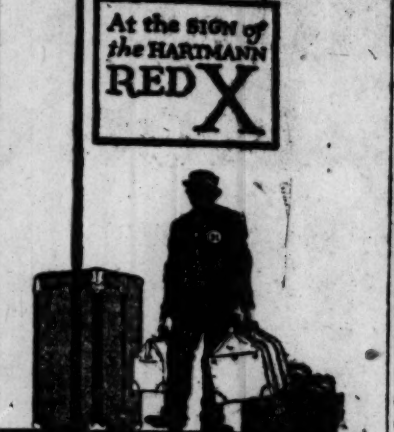

One of the large corset companies announced reductions of 20 to 25 per cent on their lines, the new prices being based on the receded market on cotton, silk, and elastic.

H. C. L. Is Lower Here.
Meanwhile the department of labor at Washington issued figures showing that during October retail food prices in Chicago were 4 per cent lower than in September. They were also 1 per cent lower than in the average American community.

Further price studies given out in Washington showed marked declines in October in nearly all items entering into cost of living, except house furnishings. Clothing, it was said, had fallen 18 per cent below the 1919 figure, and farm products 21 per cent. Whether this was wholesale or retail was not indicated in the dispatches. Prices of canned goods, now at low ebb, will be no higher, and may be somewhat lower during the coming year, according to Walter J. Sears of Chillicothe, O., president of the National Canners' association, who is in Chicago.

"We are hopeful of making prices lower," Mr. Sears said. "Canned goods have advanced less than any other staple, and prices are about as low as they can be."

"HOWL" SHOCK TO BRINDELL AID, WITNESS SAYS

New York, Nov. 13.—While the joint legislative committee investigating the "building trust" was hearing further testimony today, Robert P. Brindell, president of the Building Trades union, was indicted again. This time the charge also is extortion.

After pleading not guilty to the amended indictment alleging attempted extortion of $25,000, and the new charge, Brindell was granted his liberty on the $100,000 bail furnished yesterday.

Hears of "Wrecking Craft" The legislative committee was told of alleged payments of more than $45,000 to Brindell for wrecking jobs and "protection." Albert Hirschowitz declared he paid $25,000 to Brindell to prevent a "rumored strike." George Atwell said he had paid $17,120 for "jobs and protection."

Joseph H. Goldblatt, building and sheet metal contractor, testified he paid $2,000 to Brindell's agents at the request of the labor leader to have a strike called off on an alteration job.

Pike Shocked at "Howl?" When he said he threatened to fight the Brindell men, Goldblatt declared Mr. Pike, a business agent, said:

"Go as far as you like. We have got all the protection we want. We have got the district attorney and police force with us."

"Why, my dear boy," he said, "continued Goldblatt, 'your amount is so small it cannot be seen. What are you barking about? We have about fifty on the list ranging from $20,000 to $50,000 and nobody makes a howl like yours.'"

Atwell declared Brindell controlled

MARRIED SIXTY YEARS; 4 GENERATIONS WILL AID IN CELEBRATION

Four sons, a daughter, three grandchildren, and one great granddaughter will help Mr. and Mrs. Herman Braun celebrate their sixtieth wedding anniversary at the home of a granddaughter.

Mrs. Herman Braun, 225 Clifton avenue, Park Ridge, next Monday evening, Mr. Braun was a member of the first German opera company to be organized in the United States and played before President Lincoln at Grover's theater, Washington, in 1864, a month prior to the assassination of the president.

He is also a prominent member of the Chicago Federation of Musicians and in 1914 was awarded a gold medal in honor of the completion of his fiftieth year as a member of the North Side Turner hall orchestra.

The aged couple have known each other since their school days and were married in Milwaukee, in 1861.

"building work, awarded jobs, and fixed prices."

"This manipulation and corruption added tremendously to the cost of building," Atwell said.

The labor chief, the witness continued, had forced him to discharge old experienced house wreckers and hire inexperienced men who came on the job and said the "work was too dirty," and made seats for themselves and sat down to do their work.

SHIPPING BOARD OUT $3,000,000 ON OIL IN 30 DAYS

New York, Nov. 13.—Failure of the tank steamer department of the United States shipping board to utilize its fleet of bulk oil carriers for the needs of shipping board vessels caused a loss to the government of $3,000,000 in one month, Martin J. Gillen testified today before the Walsh congressional committee inquiring into the shipping board transactions.

Gillen was special assistant to former Chairman John Barton Payne last May, when, he said, the alleged dereliction occurred.

The tank steamer department had fifty-four vessels, he added. Of these, twenty were in the hands of private operators. It was discovered on May 26 last fifty-four vessels were tied up at southern ports for lack of fuel oil, and in addition, 40 per cent of the operators were buying oil on the open market for $4 to $5 a barrel. At the same time, he added, "60 per cent of the oil we were carrying in our ships was furnished at $2.07 a barrel."

Gillen further testified that this condition of affairs was disclosed through complaints of two operators.

Among the operators, Gillen named the Standard Oil companies of New York and California, the Vacuum Oil company, Atlantic Refining company, American Fuel Oil Transportation company, Island Oil company, the France and Canadian Steamship company, and others.

He added that last May this country, as well as the entire world, was vitally short of tankers. On the open market such ships were being chartered at from $15 to $22 a deadweight ton, he said. The shipping board was leasing its tankers, he added, to private companies at $1.15 to $1.50 a ton.

The tankers were described as "the only floating property this government then owned on which a profit could have been made."

POLLS OFFICIALS CALLED IN COUNT FOR SABATH SEAT

Judges and clerks from nineteen precincts of the Fifth congressional district have been summoned to appear before the election commissioners to explain discrepancies in the votes tallied for Congressman A. J. Sabath, Democrat. On the face of the returns, as canvassed yesterday, he defeated J. Gartenstein, Republican, by 306 votes.

Gartenstein claims that in many precincts where tally sheets show a large number of straight Republican ballots, he was given fewer votes than other candidates.

The judges and clerks from the Tenth, Eleventh, and Twelfth wards will appear before the commissioners tonight and those from the Twentieth and Thirty-fourth wards will appear tomorrow afternoon.

COUNCIL BODY VOTES FOR BAN ON PARKING IN LOOP

Auto Ordinance Sure of Passage, Claim.

Drastic action to clear the traffic jam which is choking Chicago's downtown business district was taken yesterday by the local transportation committee of the city council which recommended that all parking in the district be prohibited between 7 a. m. and 6:30 p. m.

The committee passed the anti-parking ordinance unanimously, and Chairman Schwartz said council approval of the measure is assured. Traffic experts told the committee enforcement of the ordinance will save Chicagoans from $20,000,000 to $25,000,000 annually in time saved and accidents prevented.

The anti-parking district fixed by the measure is bounded by the south line of Harrison street, the west line of Michigan avenue, the north line of Kinzie street, and the west line of Clinton street.

Police to Enforce Law.
If the ordinance becomes law it will be up to the police to see that all vehicles, whether horse drawn or automobile, stop only to load or unload passengers, baggage, or merchandise in the no-parking area between 7 a. m. and 6:30 p. m.

Representatives of the automobile club were alone in their opposition to the ordinance. After the committee had acted Charles M. Hayes, president of the Chicago Motor club, declared the ordinance had been railroaded through and hinted at court action to prevent its enforcement.

Revell Fights for Plan.
Alexander H. Revell was among the many who argued for the plan. He declared that though it will inconvenience the 2,000-odd motorists who use loop streets for parking, it will facilitate business and prove a boon to the hundreds of thousands who are delayed each day by the loop traffic tangle. Lieut. John Martin of the traffic division declared 90 per cent of the cars parked on streets between Michigan avenue and Wabash avenue are placed there by loop business men.

CHICAGO PHONE COMPANY SEEKS STATE CONTROL

Permission to consolidate all the Bell telephone interests in Illinois into one company, to be known as the Illinois Bell Telephone company, was requested yesterday in a petition filed with the public utilities commission.

Under the petition the Chicago Telephone company would purchase the property of the Central Union Telephone company—the state Bell concern—for $15,500,000. B. E. Sunny, president of the Chicago concern, testified before the commission.

"The purpose of the petition is to place the entire service of the Bell company in the state in the control of one management, in the interest of more uniform practices, increased efficiency, and economy," a statement issued by the local telephone company says.

No Changes in Rates.

"No changes in rates for telephone service, or local management, are involved in the transaction. If the purchase is approved the transfer of the property will take place at an early date."

The Chicago company at present operates in eight counties adjacent to Chicago. The Central Union supplies service to Rockford, Rock Island, Moline, Peoria, Springfield, Decatur and other cities and towns that have no independent companies.

"We are selling out our holdings in three states—Illinois, Indiana, and Ohio," Edgar S. Bloom, president of the Central Union, told the commission.

"This is being done to liquidate our affairs and to pay the debt of $40,000,000 which we owe to the American Telephone and Telegraph company."

"We plan to sell our Indiana property for $7,500,000 and our Ohio property for $25,000,000."

No representative of the city was present at the hearing, and Assistant Corporation Counsel Daniel A. Roberts, in charge of the phone litigation for the city, professed complete surprise at the filing of the petition.

"The city will look into this at once," he said. "We should have been given notice of the hearing. Under the 1907 franchise ordinance, which gives the Chicago Telephone company permission to operate in the city until 1929, there is a provision under which the city may purchase the system in 1924."

SCREAMS SAVE $300 FROM ROBBERIES.

Just as four automobile robbers were leaving the butcher shop of Morris Babonetta, 3700 West Fifteenth street, after failing to get any money in the cash register or the pockets of the proprietor, Mrs. Rose Babonetta walked into the shop. She had $300 in her apron pocket, but she ran and started to scream when the men approached her. They fled.

CUMMINS SEES WIND SHIFTING TO RAIL REFORM

Washington, D. C., Nov. 18.—[Special.]—Senator Cummins of Iowa, chairman of the senate interstate commerce committee, today outlined a program of legislation which he hopes to see enacted by congress. It includes:

A bill to repeal that provision of the act of 1913 which makes it obligatory upon the interstate commerce commission to ascertain what the cost would be of replacing today the right of way of the railroads in making the valuation of the roads.

The anti-strike provisions of the transportation act, passed by the senate last session, but which the house refused to pass.

The compulsory consolidation provisions of the transportation act as passed by the senate, but which also failed in the house.

The Iowa senator will press for action upon the first measure at the short session of congress next month.

NAB LAND AGENT; CHARGE $60,000 PANAMA FRAUD

Charged with operating a confidence game and obtaining nearly $60,000 through the sale of timber land in Panama, Edward F. Walker, president of the Latin-American Products company, 6 North Michigan avenue, yesterday was locked up at the detective bureau.

He was arrested on complaint of Dr. J. Ford Hawes, 1924 West Sixty-third street, and Leslie Brooks, a North Carolina timber operator. Hawes told the police he invested $6,000 in Walker's scheme. Brooks said he had put up $5,000 and in addition the company owed him more than $1,000 more for salary and expenses.

Walker was found at his home, 238 Lafayette parkway, by Detective Sergeant Gratton and Cusack after he had been trailed for more than a week by operatives of the William J. Turner Detective agency.

"I met Walker some time ago through an advertisement," Brooks told the police. "He wanted an expert timber operator. He represented he was the owner of considerable timber land in Panama and wished me to go down there and investigate it. I was so impressed I put up $5,000, accepted the job and went to Panama." Walker, who was released on $4,000 bail, insists the whole proceeding is a mistake.

Laurence M. Lloyd, President of the Edward A. Cassidy Company, largest specialized selling organization in the United States devoted exclusively to the marketing of automobile accessories.

Mr. Lloyd's intimate connection with big business concerns makes his opinion of the modern Printer of interest to all buyers of printing.

The Cassidy organization buys printing not only for their own needs, but also for the seven concerns whose products they distribute. The appropriation of these concerns for magazine advertising and printed matter runs into hundreds of thousands of dollars a year.

Cassidy's salesmen call on 30,000 dealers a year. Ten million pieces of printed matter leave the Cassidy mailing department annually.

NOTE: In general where we use the term "Printer" in this announcement, it refers not only to the printer who does flat bed and rotary work, but also to the offset printer, the lithographer, the engraver and the stationer.

The Watermark of Excellence

Costs reduced 52% by a printer's recommendation

Laurence M. Lloyd, President of the Edward A. Cassidy Company, tells how an unnecessary expense was eliminated

First of a series of interviews with business executives on the purchase of printing and the development of the Printing Industry

ONE kind of printing we purchase every year consists of page inserts displaying our products, for the loose-leaf catalogs of jobbers' salesmen. This work runs into many thousands of dollars annually, and as the catalogs are of different sizes, there was at one time great duplication of effort—an obvious waste.

"One day our Printer came to us with this suggestion: 'Why not have all the inserts you will need for a year printed at one time? The text can be printed comparatively small on large size paper, and the copies can then be trimmed down to the various catalog sizes required.'

"This method of standardization we adopted at once, and have followed since then, saving more than half of what we originally spent.

"This little incident illustrates an important principle. If our Printer had not known what our needs would be, if he had not had a thorough understanding of our business from beginning to end, the suggestion probably would not have occurred to him.

"No man would think of calling in several physicians and having them compete for the job of making him well. No man would explain a legal case to several lawyers and then give it to the man who promised to do the work for the least money. Neither can a man, we believe, profitably ask Printers to compete on the basis of price.

"In our organization we consider ourselves a client of our Printer, and have found that this attitude has yielded us big dividends in service and savings."

New attitude toward the Printer among business executives

BUYERS of printing all over the country—advertising managers, purchasing agents, business executives—now realize that the Printer of today is a man to be consulted in the bigger phases of printing. The Printer is no longer an order chaser. Neither is he merely content to follow instructions blindly. The Printer is being regarded as a creative force in business—giving thought primarily to producing results for the customer.

The United Typothetae of America, the National Association of Stationers and the National Lithographers' Association have taken the lead in this movement toward better service. Recently the U. T. A. came out for standardization as a move in the direction of better values. At its last meeting in St. Louis, it unanimously passed a Resolution: "That national organizations of paper merchants, paper manufacturers and printing machinery manufacturers be requested to severally appoint committees to join with a special committee representing the United Typothetae of America, in an effort to analyze the needs, reduce the number of sizes, weights, colors and grades of paper, standardize machinery sizes, investigate methods of increasing paper production and determine a reduction to the minimum of the number of watermarks in commercial paper."

A great example of industrial co-operation

The U. T. A. has 105 local branches, each branch with a high-grade paid secretary in charge. The 4,800 Printers who are members do a total annual volume of, roughly, $500,000,000. More than 6,000 students are studying its courses in cost finding, estimating, selling, advertising, and the broader phases of printing.

The American Writing Paper Company wishes to take the lead in endorsing this work. We believe that the combined work that the U. T. A., the National Lithographers' Association; and the National Association of Stationers are doing is one of the most important forces for good in modern business. All parties benefit—the Buyer, the Printer, the Paper Merchant and the Paper Maker.

Our recommendations to all buyers

This Company has therefore decided upon the policy of giving the support of its entire organization and its institutional backing to the movement for better service. To all buyers of printing we make these recommendations:

Do not get four or five competitive bids from as many Printers and give the work to the man with the lowest estimate.

Select your Printer—Lithographer, Engraver, or Stationer—on the basis of service rather than price. Give him the facts about your business policies and methods. Furnish him with the basis for constructive suggestions. Maintain a permanent relationship with him.

Let your Printer co-operate and work WITH you rather than merely work FOR you. Be open-minded to your Printer's advice.

Your Printer is the one best qualified to select the right paper for each job. He is in a position to help you effect real economies—improve quality—bring RESULTS.

EDUCATOR ASKS OPERA CHIEFS TO BAR BAKLANOFF

Episode with Woman
Here Recalled.

A letter requesting that Georges Baklanoff be barred from singing this season has been received by the directors of the Chicago Opera company. The request is made by Dr. Herbert L. Willett, president of the Chicago Church Federation and a professor at the University of Chicago. He cites as his reasons Baklanoff's relations with Elvira Amador, who last year fled with him to a foreign country, and a deportation warrant for Baklanoff under the Mann act.

Baklanoff is to arrive in Chicago today accompanied by Attorney Joseph R. Fleming. He was allowed to leave the country last year without prosecution. When he returned a few weeks ago he was stopped by the immigration authorities at Ellis Island. Pressure brought to bear on the state department obtained his parole.

"Moral Factors."

Dr. Willett's letter, in part follows: "It is reported that Georges Baklanoff, whose conduct here last season caused his expulsion from the Congress hotel in company with a woman, has been re-engaged and is to appear again in Chicago."

"It would seem his conduct last year and its consequences would have been sufficient to debar him from reengagement. Apart from any artistic value grand opera possesses, there are certain moral factors which can hardly be divorced from the personality of the artist."

"When those personalities become notorious even their artistic value is notably impaired, and there is a certain responsibility attaching to the organization which employs them from which public sentiment will hardly absolve them."

Refers to Detention.

"The conduct of Baklanoff was sufficiently flagrant last season to make further inquiry into his character unnecessary, but that has been amply supplemented by the action of the United States immigration officials who raised difficulties over his departure from America last year and detained him for a number of days upon his arrival this season, with charges that he was ineligible on moral grounds to enter this country."

"On what technicality he was released from detention it is unnecessary to inquire, but widespread publicity given the matter and the fact that the relations with the woman involved have not been denied by himself nor by his defenders would seem to make the matter of sufficient public interest to have a bearing on his reengagement by your organization."

LIFE SAVERS

Young Heroes Who Rescued
Baby Boy from Death in Bonfire.

LAWRENCE MALONE.

TONY SETTLER.

FOUR year old Tony Focco, 614 Forquer street, sat watching a bonfire yesterday, when suddenly he observed a Sunday comic section in the fire. The flames were just about to devour Mamma's Angel Child and Chester Gump—and Tony has a weakness for these two persons. He toddled closer to the blaze.

"I'll save you, Esther," he called. "Naughty fire to burn little Esther!" He stooped to catch up the paper. He slipped and fell into the blaze, and his clothes caught fire. He screamed. Lawrence Malone, Tony Settler, and John DiDomenico heard the cries. They hurried up the alley and seized Tony, still grasping the torn comic sheet. They rolled him on the ground. The flames suddenly died.

"Don't you worry, Tony. You're all right," they told him, but Tony did not answer. He was unconscious. The police took him to the county hospital. The doctors say he will live.

NEW CHIEF RIPS OFF NEW COP'S STAR, FIRES HIM

Chief of Police Fitzmorris stripped Patrolman Walter Hennessey of his star, keys, and club yesterday after a report that Hennessey participated in an attempted holdup early in the morning. Hennessey joined the force on Monday.

"Hennessey is summarily dismissed," the chief said. "We have no room for men of his type. As he is a probationary patrolman, I am not going to take the trouble to file charges against him."

The man was taken into custody in a saloon at Illinois and Franklin streets after he is alleged to have attempted to hold up a cook. He was intoxicated, according to the report to the chief.

Judge Commends Cop Who Won Tribune Bravery Prize

Lincoln Park Policeman George Johnston, who a month ago was awarded THE TRIBUNE $100 prize for bravery, and his partner, Policeman Otto Webber, were warmly commended by Judge Hugh R. Stewart in Sheffield avenue court for their capture of six desperadoes, each of whom carried one or more revolvers.

The men, Morris Steubin, Abe Greenberg, Al Carney, Joseph McKinley, Theodore Plourch, and Julius Belgrad, were each fined $200 and costs.

Chicago Band to Take Long Tour to Boost City

Extensive plans for the tenth year of the Chicago Band association were considered at a meeting of the members yesterday at the Hotel La Salle. Chief among the events to mark the year will be a concert tour of the south and the Mississippi valley states, beginning in February. The purpose will be to advertise Chicago and its municipal activities.

Police Officer Fears Crooks Stole Daughter

John Flemming, pretty 17 year old daughter of Lieut. James J. Flemming of the Maxwell street station, has disappeared and a message has been sent to all stations to watch for her. Miss Flemming failed to return home from school yesterday afternoon and her father fears criminals may have abducted her out of revenge for his prosecution of them. The Flemming home is at 1213 Lexington street.

PERFUMED THIEF IN AGAIN; HOW DID HE GET OUT?

U. S. Officials and Police Are Mystified.

When the arrest of Christian Rohrer, Pontiac graduate, ex-convict, the "perfumed burglar," was reported in the newspapers yesterday there was surprise in several quarters. While representatives of the law were not entirely agreed as to where Rohrer made his residence, they felt pretty sure he was in Germany, or at least in the custody of some "uplift" society.

City and state authorities thought Rohrer was safely in Joliet, where he had been sent to serve for eighteen years. County officers "understood" a reform organization was looking after him.

Federal operatives had concluded some time since that Rohrer was in Germany, to which country he was supposed to have been deported as an undesirable alien.

Turned Over to U. S.

According to the records at Joliet penitentiary, where Rohrer was sent on Feb. 8, 1919, to serve a sentence of from one to twenty years after his arrest as the "perfumed burglar," he was turned over to the federal officials on June 5, 1920, for deportation. Although he was a German, Rohrer was not interned during the war because, as Harry R. Lands, chief of the United States bureau of immigration expressed it, "he was in jail so much he didn't give the government any trouble."

After his arrest as the "perfumed burglar," a title he earned when he was captured and his clothing was found to be saturated with cheap perfume, the government took a hand, and he was ordered deported as an undesirable alien.

On June 5 of this year he was taken from the penitentiary by immigration inspectors, and the records show that on June 15 he was sent to Ellis Island for deportation.

Freed at Ellis Island.

When questioned by the police concerning this, Rohrer stated that the commissioner of immigration at the island had released him on his own recognizance. Immigration officials here scout this, however, and contend that Rohrer was deported and smuggled himself back as a member of the crew of some steamer.

"I never was so surprised in my life," said Mr. Lands, "as when I read in the papers that Rohrer was back in Chicago. I thought that when we sent him to Ellis Island for deportation we were through with him for good. How he got back into the country after being deported, or if he really was deported, is a mystery to me, but I'll know tomorrow. As soon as I heard of it I dispatched several wires to Washington and New York and am sure that within a week we will clear up the matter."

Find Woman; Recover Loot.

The police who arrested Rohrer and locked him up at the North Halsted street station were as much surprised at his presence in the city as Mr. Lands. They, however, thought he was in Joliet penitentiary.

When arrested Wednesday, Rohrer was accompanied by a young woman, Bertha Steinmetz, 1702 North Clark street, and when the police searched her home, considerable stolen jewelry was found.

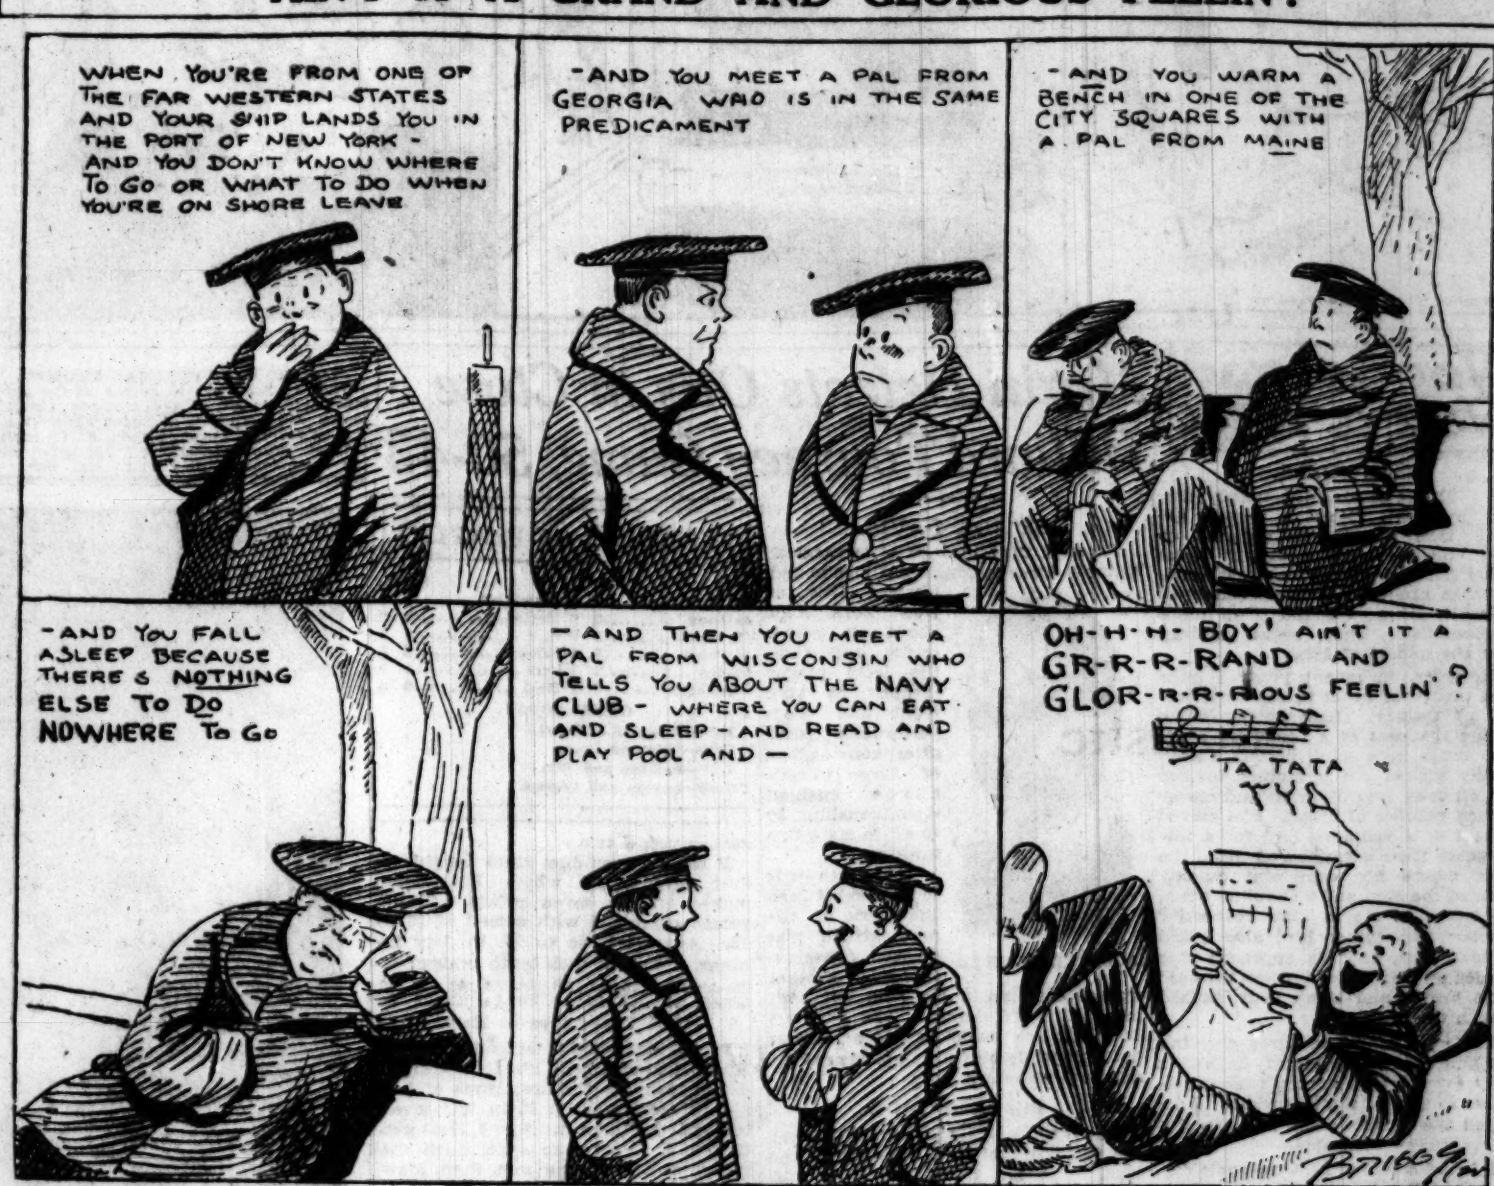

FORTUNE FOR BOY IS STAKE IN ROW OVER ADOPTION

Albert L. Juergensen, 11 years old, is the center of a bitterly contested legal fight to determine whether he shall bear the name of his father or that of his mother's parents. His claim to a share in an estate valued at several hundred thousands of dollars depends upon the court's decision.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert G. Jarwin, 3901 Hamilton avenue, grandparents of the boy filed a petition in the juvenile court asking that they be permitted to adopt the lad and give him their name. Mr. Jarwin is a wealthy manufacturer. Albert E. Juergensen purchased the agent for a local concern and the father of the boy, filed an answer opposing the adoption.

Mr. and Mrs. Jarwin, in their petition allege that since their daughter, Mrs. Juergensen, obtained a divorce in 1915 the father has not been solicitous for his son's welfare nor has he supported him. They desire to adopt the lad in order that he may inherit part of their estate without legal complications.

AIN'T IT A GRAND AND GLORIOUS FEELIN'?

SONNY'S BROTHER MEETS BIG TIM; BIFF! 3 SEIZED

"Just a Coincidence," but War Follows.

It was an impromptu reunion, the guests including Timothy (Big Tim) Murphy, president of the street sweepers' union; John Flanagan, 444 Lexington street; Joseph Duello, 258 West Van Buren street; Frank Dunn, 4330 Emerald avenue, brother of William ("Sonny") Dunn and brother-in-law of the late Maurice E. ("Boss") Enright; Miss Margaret Dunn, his sister, and Miss Johanna Griffin, 541 West Forty-second place, where Gene Geary was captured. Late arrivals were Policemen Charles P. Dillon and George Peterson.

They heard Miss Dunn and Miss Griffin screaming for help at La Salle and Washington streets. They hurried up to find Dunn lying on the pavement, his eyes blackened, his nose bleeding, and his clothing disheveled, they say.

Grab "Big Tim" and Two.

The two women pointed to a group of men standing near Dunn, and the policemen arrested Murphy, Flanagan, and Duello. All were taken to the central station, where Dunn signed a complaint charging Murphy and his two companions with disorderly conduct. They obtained their release on bonds.

"They attacked me without warning and without provocation," said Dunn. "I popped up from nowhere. I didn't have a chance."

"I can't understand it at all," Murphy told reporters. "I know nothing about it. I guess it was just a coincidence."

Later he visited Chief Fitzmorris and explained "the whole thing was an unfortunate occurrence. I don't want to get into any trouble with the police. I've been doing all I can to keep out of trouble. It was a quarrel between Dunn and Flanagan."

Mr. Murphy Gets His.

Both Miss Griffin and Miss Dunn were distraught.

"Why, to think," the former cried to Murphy at the station, "to think you would strike me, Tim Murphy!"

"I never struck a woman in my life," expostulated Mr. Murphy.

Miss Dunn interrupted with a remark concerning the shooting of Enright. It was in connection with Enright's murder that Murphy was held for some time at the county jail.

GRAIN BROKER, SPRY AS 60 AT AGE OF 83, ENJOYS HUNTING TRIP

Charles T. Trego, the second oldest member of the Chicago Board of Trade in point of service, has returned from his annual hunting trip in the northern Wisconsin woods.

Mr. Trego is 83 years old and as spry as most men of 60. For more than thirty years he and Mrs. Trego have gone to the woods for a month's shooting, and they enjoy it.

"We have a little cottage there," said Mr. Trego yesterday. "While Mrs. Trego takes care of the hunt, Mr. Trego takes care of the deer for export and we get our meals at a clubhouse. Duck shooting this year has been poor, owing to the cold weather."

WOMAN'S MOTOR HITS SCHOOL BUS; CHILDREN HURT

An unruly automobile driven by Mrs. W. G. Shockey of 6237 Magnolia avenue yesterday, crashed into a bus containing children from the Sheridan Park kindergarten, overturned it, and injured three children and one man.

The machine was moving north on Kenmore avenue about ten miles an hour when Mrs. Shockey lost control and hit the bus, which was going east on Montrose boulevard. No one was seriously hurt, though three children—Elaine Schackman, 4 years old; Kenneth Winkley, 5, and Roy Wilson, 4, had to be taken to the nearby office of Dr. A. C. Taylor for medical attention. B. L. Junkin, 8707 Ravenswood avenue, also was hurt.

Helen Taylor, 7 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard L. Taylor of 4634 Indiana avenue, who was run over by an auto truck last Tuesday, died at the county hospital.

'TOO MUCH DISH DODGING,' SEEKS DIVORCE AT 81

Charles Nicholas Code, 1729 Humboldt boulevard, celebrated his eighty-first birthday yesterday by suing for divorce. Unwillingness to endure alleged acts of cruelty on the part of Mrs. Josephine Lewellyn Code, his 55 year old wife, is the reason given for the suit. Code says his head has been frequently the object of flying missiles, dishes, cutlery vases, and cutlery hurled by his wife.

TRIES TO SELL STOLEN SILK TO OWNER

William Silverman, 1506 West Madison street, was arrested yesterday as a result of a complaint by Louis Babin, 19 South Wells street, that Benjamin Goldman, 1313 Washington avenue, was trying to sell him some silk that was stolen from him in November. Goldman told the police he was employed by Silverman.

OFFTO JERUSALEM AT 99 TO VISIT HIS GRANDFATHER

Hyman Lefkowitz, 29 years old, and hale and hearty, applied for passports to Palestine yesterday. He lives at 2136 Fowler street.

"Going over to see my grandfather in Jerusalem," he explained. "It's my second trip."

"How old is your grandfather?"

"I've forgotten. He hasn't had a birthday anniversary for some time. He enjoys my visits and I like to give the old gentleman all the happiness I can."

Mr. Lefkowitz has not decided when he will return.

LAWYER DASHES FOR SPRINGFIELD TO SAVE HAENSEL

Condemned Man Shuffles
Cards and Hopes.

Arthur Haensel, whose execution for the murder of his wife has been delayed four times, slumped in his chair last night as he sat in the death cell of the county jail playing "an old woman's game" of cards—casino. Conversation between him and his two guards was extremely dull. He will be hanged this morning unless Gov. Lowden prevents it.

The casino game started shortly after he devoured a delicious chicken dinner sent to him by Mrs. Charles Appel from Turner hall. It continued until almost daylight.

Haensel remembered the reprieve that came before as he rose to commence his death walk. He had faith in last minute rescue. And when at 4 o'clock Night Jailer W. P. Holden came to him and said that Attorney Philip R. Davis had left for Springfield the spark of hope that burns eternal was fanned to a flame.

Shortly after the dinner hour his family filed up the corridor to the death cell. His father broke down and the four children, his brothers, turned quickly away. Haensel ran his fingers through his hair and dug his fists into his eyes.

"So long dad," he said.

"Good-by, Art," said the old man.

Hard to Say Good-by.

As the steel doors swung behind them and the big brass key screeched in the lock, the former soldier turned to Holden and stretched out a hand.

"God, that's hard," he murmured. "That's the worst. The other'll be easy, Mr. Holden, but the old man—"

His voice trailed off into an inaudible whisper.

A guard shuffled the cards.

"Anything—any last thing I can do for you, Art?" asked Holden.

"No—well, say, Mr. Holden, you might tell Dick Wilson that I'm thankful to him for all he has done for me. You know we were together; I was in 501 and Dick was in 503. Tell him I'm going like a man, Mr. Holden. Tell him they'll never get a whisper out of me when I stand up there."

Richard Wilson is awaiting the same fate that Haensel will meet this morning—unless there is another reprieve.

A few minutes later the same was interrupted by the family member, who came to give spiritual comfort to the man. Haensel was extremely respectful, even cheered by the consolation.

Back to the Casino Game.

Then the game of casino. He called it "an old woman's game," but on through the night he played, shuffling, dealing, and matching up the pairs.

No word had come from the rescue mission to Springfield at 5 o'clock. Haensel was placed in the death cell yesterday afternoon. He at once asked for reporters and talked to them for an hour.

"I am not getting a square deal from Acting Gov. Oglesby. He would rather take the word of my mother-in-law than that of a man who has served his country and spent weeks in hospitals in foreign lands for Uncle Sam."

Mrs. Cecilia Haensel was killed on Feb. 4, 1919.

POLICEMAN SHOT WITH ALD. HELD DIES OF WOUNDS

Policeman John Pijanowski, who with former Ald. William Held was shot Nov. 14, died yesterday. Raymond Knight, 1212 South Spaulding avenue, who has been arrested and is held in the county jail, is charged with the shooting.

John Pijanowski was shot Nov. 14 and has been held at the Lawrenceville station pending the outcome of the shooting.

Others implicated by Knight in his alleged confession have not been apprehended as yet.

OFFTO JERUSALEM AT 99 TO VISIT HIS GRANDFATHER

Hyman Lefkowitz, 29 years old, and hale and hearty, applied for passports to Palestine yesterday. He lives at 2136 Fowler street.

"Going over to see my grandfather in Jerusalem," he explained. "It's my second trip."

"How old is your grandfather?"

"I've forgotten. He hasn't had a birthday anniversary for some time. He enjoys my visits and I like to give the old gentleman all the happiness I can."

Mr. Lefkowitz has not decided when he will return.

GOTHAM BOXING BOARD PERMITS HEAVY BATTLES

TRIBUNE DECISIONS

Decisions of Tribune fight representatives are:
At Fond du Lac, Wis.—Jimmy Kelly and Willie Graylock, draw [10]. Calhoun, Kelly and Jimmy Muzzi, draw [10]. Johnny Hersey stopped Mike Lawler [5]. At Jersey City—Jack McFarland beat Harry Martinez [12]. At St. Louis—Patsy Flanagan beat Red Watson [6]. At Kansas City—Jack Britton beat Morris Lux [10].

New York, Nov. 18.—[Special.]—The boxing commission today lifted the ban on heavyweight boxing contests in local arenas under the provisions of the Walker law. This action will pave the way for the championship battles between Jack Dempsey and Bill Brennan in Madison Square garden Dec. 14. In addition the official sanction for bouts between heavyweights is expected to result in a number of important matches in this division in the immediate future.

Three Battles Arranged.
Tex Rickard now has completed arrangements for three bouts in which world's ring titles will be at stake. The first of these will be the Benny Leonard-Joe Welling, lightweight championship match, Nov. 25. The Dempsey-Brennan clash on Dec. 14 follows, and the third will introduce Pete Herman, bantamweight title holder, in a contest in defense of his crown on Dec. 21, according to present plans. Herman's opponent has not been definitely selected, but he is tentatively matched to meet the winner of the bout between Joe Lynch and Jack Sharkey, which will be decided at the Garden Dec. 2.

Willard May "Come Back."
Proctor Rickard practically arranged for another titanic battle, which will be fought at the Garden next spring. This contest will bring Dempsey and Jess Willard, former champion, together in a return bout of fifteen rounds. The contest will probably be held March 17. The formality of actually signing contracts for this match has not yet been performed by either the principals or their representatives. Governor Elect Nathan L. Miller returned to this city today from Abbecon, N. J. When it was suggested an impression seemed to prevail he would veto any proposal to contest the Dempsey-Carpenter fight in the state and also would urge the repeal of the Walker act, the governor elect smiled.

Prospects None Too Bright.
"During the campaign," a reporter said, "the Democrats gave wide currency to a statement that Gov. Smith was in favor of boxing and that you were opposed."
"Under the circumstances," said the governor elect, "the people would be rather disappointed if the boxing law was not repealed after the victory we won, wouldn't they?"
That was all Judge Miller would say on the subject. A Republican leader who talked with the governor elect in the afternoon, said:
"I wouldn't give a whole lot for Tex Rickard's five year lease of the Madison Square garden."

Jack Britton Has Shade in Bout with Morris Lux
Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 18.—[Special.]—Jack Britton, welterweight champion, won nine at an even score in his bout with Morris Lux of Kansas City tonight. Lux won the ninth by a good margin, but failed to do much against the champion in the other rounds. Lux's best blow of the fight was a right to the chin in the ninth session. No decision was given.

Grayjack and Kelly Go 10 Fast Rounds to Draw
Fond du Lac, Wis., Nov. 18.—[Special.]—Jimmy Kelly, Chicago, and Walter Grayjack, Milwaukee, fought ten savage rounds to a draw before a capacity house in the opening of the local boxing season tonight. The fight was full of action from start to finish.

Patsy Flanagan Outpoints Watson in Uphill Battle
St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 18.—[Special.]—After being nearly knocked out in the third round from a terrific left hook to the nose, Patsy Flanagan, St. Louis, came back in fine fashion and easily outpointed "Red" Watson, New Orleans, in eight rounds tonight.

BIRD NOTES.

F. E. MUSSELMAN, Quincy, Ill., writes: "Relative to your article stating the cheewink or towhee most probably nests farther north, I wish to say that years ago when attending military school at Fairbault, Minn., I found them there in quantities. They began nesting about the middle of May."

"However, in recent years I have found plenty of nests in the neighborhood of Quincy. Last spring while hunting the nest of a 'chat' in some dense brush in a creek bottom I accidentally kicked out a mother towhee from an open plot of grass and clover between patches of brush. She played the part of a wounded bird for a few moments, then disappeared into the brush, where her complaint quickly attracted the chat and a Carolina wren, who swore at me in their respective dialects. The father bird also heard the complaint, and his approach was heralded by a metallic 'towhee, towhee' as his brown and black body flashed through the bushes."

"The nest contained three cheewink eggs and one cowbird egg. It was a pretty ground nest arched with grass, similar to that of a meadowlark. I destroyed the parasite egg and the others eventually incubated."

"I found a second nest the same day on a side hill near an oak grove. This nest was likewise a pretty ground nest with a covering of grass. It contained five eggs."

"The rocky wooded hills here along the Mississippi river are ideal locations for their nesting and pairs are found abundantly distributed throughout the entire section."

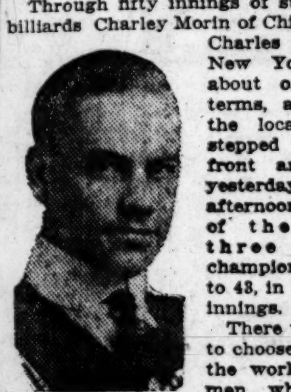

"Cheewinks have arrived in Quincy during the spring migration on the following dates: 1917, March 23; 1918, March 31; 1919, March 23; 1920, April 11."

"For the last few days [last week in October] the fall migration of the cheewink has been at its height."

By JOE DAVIS.

Through fifty innings of strategical billiards Charley Morin of Chicago and Charles Otis of New York kept about on even terms, and then the local player stepped to the front and won yesterday's first afternoon game of the world's three cushion championship, 50 to 43, in sixty-two innings.

Starting with the fiftieth inning, Otis knocked out a brace of 3s and tied the count at 39, but Morin made a single. Otis soon tied at 40, but the local player scored a double and three singles in a row, and led, 45 to 40. Otis came back with a 3, but this was his last count, Morin going out with runs of 3 and 2. Ross, chairman, at a meeting of the stewards of the jockey club here today, withdrew his application for a jockey's license for Carroll Shilling, barred several years ago. Commander Ross also withdrew his application to the Maryland state racing commission. It was decided to hold a conference between the jockey club and the Maryland state racing commission at a date to be agreed upon after the Maryland running season ends. The meeting was attended by August Belmont, H. E. Sturgis, H. K. Knapp, John B. Cowdin, F. R. Hitchcock, Joseph E. Widener, and R. T. Wilson for the jockey club; Joseph F. SEVEN MAROONS END FOOTBALL CAREERS WITH BADGER GAME

Tomorrow will end the college football careers of seven University of Wisconsin players.

After the final whistle blows for the end of the Maroon-Wisconsin game, Capt. Colville Jackson, tackle; Coleman Clark, end; Paul Hinkle, end; Roland Barker, end; James Reber, center; Russell Hutchinson, half back; and Harold Hanch, full back, will have worn out their college careers.

The Maroon jersey will hold their final practice of the season this afternoon, and Coach Richards will hold their final practice of the season this afternoon, and Coach Richards will hold their final practice of the season this afternoon.

Capt. Jackson insists he will be able to start in his final game. The plucky leader of the Maroons has a badly infected arm, which cannot be lance because the poisoning has not concentrated. It is too painful for him to work in scrimmage practice.

"But," Hanch, the heroic full back, who played fifty-seven minutes in the Illinois game with a compound fracture of his right arm, has asked that the plaster cast be removed and that he be allowed to play with a brace on his wrist, but the trainers will not listen to him.

The backfield which until start is still undecided. Tisher has not put on a suit since the Michigan game, but he, too, says that he will be ready, although Trainer Johnson thinks otherwise. It looks like Tater at quarter and either Hutchinson or Bell, midlegs, or Palmer and Rouse at the halves, and Timme or Palmer at full.

RADGERS IN FINE FETTER.
Madison, Wis., Nov. 18.—[Special.]—The Badgers took their last practice of the season on Randall field today. There was no scrimmage, signal practice and dummy scrimmage being the extent of the workout. The entire squad is in good condition, being no serious injuries during the week's scrimmage.

Sundt's leg bothered him somewhat so that his punting was not up to standard this week, but he is expected to be in shape Saturday. Brader, guard, though suffering from a bruised leg, will be able to use it without trouble.

The team leaves tomorrow morning accompanied by a squad of about thirty frosh, who get the Chicago trip as a reward for service on the field against the varsity. Coach Richards probably will give the team a light workout on Stagg field tomorrow to complete preparations for the contest.

Knox-Lombard Grid Game Is Homecoming Feature
Galesburg, Ill., Nov. 18.—Homecoming at Lombard college tomorrow will be featured by the annual Knox-Lombard football game on Knox field. Knox has not lost a game to their local rivals since 1910, although held to a scoreless tie in 1918. This year Lombard with a stronger team than usual has a better opportunity to annex a victory than they have had in the last five or six years. Walter Ekevald of Chicago, Frank Birch of Earlham and Norman Elliott of Illinois Wesleyan will be the officials.

Major Leagues Consider Making Season 168 Games
New York, Nov. 18.—When the major leagues hold their annual meetings in February they will consider a proposition to lengthen each schedule to 168 games instead of 154, as heretofore, it was learned today. Proponents of the plan argue that since many of the teams are allowed to play on Sunday on their home grounds, the season would not be unduly lengthened by the proposed change.

Umpire Louis W. Knapp of American Association Dies
Louisville, Ky., Nov. 18.—Louis W. Knapp, 39, umpire of the American association, died after an attack of hemorrhage at his home here last night. His health had been declining for some time. Prior to joining the American association Mr. Knapp umpired in the Central, Western, Bluegrass, Three Eyes, and Central Kansas leagues.

Cadore, Brooklyn Pitcher and War Hero, to Be Wed

THOSE GOOD OLD DAYS.

It seems that everybody loves to hearken To the good old days of forty years ago When a quarter bought a dinner Or a hat that was a winner Or perhaps a couple dozen eggs or so.

SUBURBAN PREP ELEVEN IN TITLE GRID GAME NOV. 26

At the regular monthly meeting yesterday of officials of the Suburban High School league, it was agreed to stage the game between Oak Park and New Trier football teams on Stagg field, Friday afternoon, Nov. 26. Largely through the efforts of Dr. William Monilaw, president of the league, the differences between the two schools were overcome. The game will be for the suburban championship, neither team having been beaten and having played a tie game, 3 to 3, when they met in October. Nothing was said about playing the champions of the Chicago league at the close of the season.

NOTRE DAME WIZARDS

Notre Dame, Nov. 18.—[Special.]—Dependent upon the wizardry of its eridiron colonels, Rockne and Hales, and the aggressiveness of one of the fightingst elevena turned out here in years, Notre Dame will invade Purple territory tomorrow bent on walloping Northwestern and grabbing the accompanying laurels.

A slippery, waterlogged field made scrimmage work today dangerous, and the workout was limited to blocking and signal drill. Light practice will be held tomorrow afternoon, and Rockne will take his squad, thirty strong, to Chicago at 6:44 tomorrow evening.

Save for Gipp, half back, and P. Anderson, guard, the personnel of the side line is intact.

Gipp has returned from Chicago, where he underwent treatment for his injured shoulder, and he is anxious to mingle in the contest with the Purple. Rockne said tonight Gipp will not be used. Anderson will bedeck the side lines. Either Degree or Dooley will plug the hole at guard.

Gossip From Football Camps

RELENTLESSLY and hard Coach Elmer McDewitt of the Purple grid machine drove his willing warriors yesterday evening in preparation for the closing game of the season with Notre Dame tomorrow. Long after dark, with the assistance of arc lights, the "ghost ball" traveled up and down the field, and practically every play on the repertoire was rehearsed.

Every man, with the exception of Bud Turner, will be able to play if needed. Palmer will be at the pilot position; Patterson at full back, with Lane, Graunick, and Saold holding down the half berths. In Carney and Sunders Coach McDewitt has two reliable ends, with Ewing and Shearon as dependable substitutes. Hathaway will be at center, G. Penfield and Magnuson at right and left guard, respectively, while Lassiter, Blackwood, and H. Penfield will divide the tackle berths.

The ticket sale has been so large that extra bleachers have been erected and 3,000 extra tickets were put on sale yesterday. Practically the entire east stand has been purchased by Notre Dame enthusiasts.

A massmeeting is to be held in Fick chapel this morning, at which Director Evans, Coaches McDewitt and Putnam, and various members of the team will give short speeches.

OHIO STATE.
Columbus, O., Nov. 18.—[Special.]—The Buckeyes are in trim for the titular game with the Illini. Coach Wiley brought them through the week's hard work without additional injuries and put on the finishing touches to his polished machine in a short signal drill early this afternoon. Twenty-eight men in charge of Coach Wiley, Director St. John, and Assistant Coach Ward left Columbus at 6 p. m. for Davisville, Ill., where the team will complete the journey to Urbana Saturday morning and expects to look over Illinois' walkouts before the game. Special trains including twenty-eight cars will leave Columbus Friday night. Twenty-five hundred tickets to the game have been sold in Columbus.

MINNESOTA.
Minneapolis, Minn., Nov. 18.—[Special.]—The Gophers practically finished their practice sessions for the season this afternoon. Reporting at 8:30 o'clock, Dr. Williams drove his men through a scrimmage until nearly 10 o'clock and then announced the team would go to a short drill tomorrow morning. The Michigan squad will arrive tomorrow morning. Every one of the regulars was in the practice tonight.

Dartmouth Eleven Off to Seattle After Brown Game
Boston, Mass., Nov. 18.—Dartmouth's football squad, numbering twenty-one men, will leave after the game here with Brown university Saturday to meet the University of Washington eleven at Seattle, Nov. 27. At St. Paul, Minn., Monday, the players will be the guests of the St. Paul Dartmouth Alumni association. The team is due to arrive at Seattle Wednesday night.

STUDENTS CHEER HARVARD ELEVEN IN LAST WORKOUT

Cambridge, Mass., Nov. 18.—The Harvard student body, hundreds strong, saw their varsity eleven in action today in the stadium in the last practice before the team leaves for New Haven, where the game with Yale will be played Saturday. The fences that have made practice secret all season were down for the occasion and the under graduates, behind their band, cheered long and loudly for the team's coaches and players.

The lineup of the Crimson as it will oppose Yale on the kickoff was virtually settled today. Coach Fisher said only one position was in doubt, left tackle, where Sedgwick and Faxon are in competition, with Sedgwick still tender from an injury. Tom Woods, the husky guard, has recovered and will play. The probable lineup is:

Left end, Kane; left tackle, Sedgwick or Faxon; right tackle, Woods; right guard, Woods; right end, Greider; quarter back, Fitts; left half back, Green; right half back, Churchill; full back, Horvath.

Fitts, the Crimson's triple threat of combined running, kicking, and forward passing ability, is to be held in reserve for an opportune moment.

CHANGE YALE LINEUP.
New Haven, Conn., Nov. 18.—Instead of driving the Yale eleven through high geared scrimmaging this afternoon to test its speed and team play, Head Coach Tad Jones let the players off with a dummy breaking through drill, combined with a signal rehearsal. A tentative change was made in the lineup when Bob Lay succeeded Frank Kelley at right half back. The coaches said that, although indications were that Kelley would be given the assignment, there is a strong possibility that Lay will start. He is a former Lawrenceville player and starred in the freshman backfield three years ago.

NORE HAY USED

Cold weather has increased consumption of hay and demand from Iowa and shipping interests absorbed the light arrivals. 28 cars of hay have been shipped this winter to the prairie, with 3 cars of straw. Country loads of hay are less plentiful and the price of hay has been slightly higher, but only four days' supply is needed. The following table shows the price of hay in Chicago, Ill., No. 1 timothy, $35.00@36.00; No. 2 timothy, $34.00@35.00; No. 3 timothy, $33.00@34.00; sample hay, $32.00@33.00.

Misses' Leather Coats, $27.50

Remarkably Low Priced for Coats So Desirable

This very special pricing brings an opportunity for unusual saving to schoolgirls and young business women who know how satisfactory is a leather coat in our uncertain winter weather.

Of Fine Soft Leather, Exceptionally Well Tailored

These coats have become soiled from display. Therefore, they have been marked at this very low price. Sketched at the right.

Misses' Chinchilla Coats, With Raccoon Collars, $65

A coat of this sort young women choose for smartness and service the winter through. It is the superior quality and the uncommonly good workmanship of these coats which make them such exceptional values.

The shawl collar is wider than is usual and of fine dark raccoon. Altogether an extremely worth while value. Sketched at the left.

Fourth Floor, South.

Girls' Warm Winter Coats

Present Unusual Values at $25 and $30

The style of these splendid little coats is of a sort that will make very definite appeal to girls. The prices and the quality will just as strongly attract parents.

Chinchilla Cloth Coats Lined With Flannel, $25

Coats usually found only at higher prices make up this group. They may be had in blue, gray and brown—every garment well cut and skillfully fashioned. Not all sizes in every color, but an interesting selection in sizes 6 to 16 years.

Coats With Fur Collars Are Priced at $30

An excellent quality of silvertone, combined with fur collars, makes these little coats most remarkable values at $30. Every one is full lined, affording extra warmth. Sizes 6 to 12 years.

Fourth Floor, East.

For Misses—Wool Jersey Blouses

Essentially youthful in style and distinctly moderate in price are these smart new over-blouses. They are much in favor with plaid skirts of the present vogue.

At $10—

Wool jersey over-blouses in Copenhagen blue, navy blue, and brown tones are enlivened with little touches of silk embroidery applied by hand. Sketched at the right.

At $16.50—

Of jade or navy blue wool jersey, they are beautifully embroidered in worsted and silk. Note the unique neckline, shown in the sketch at the left.

Jersey Over-Blouses of More Tailored Type Priced at $5.75.

Fourth Floor, North.

Misses' Frocks of Velveteen

And Fine Serge, Low Priced at $40 and $50

Velveteen Frocks, $50 With Draped Skirt

In navy blue, black, or brown with a lovely bit of color in a cluster of silken flowers at the belt. The little collar of rich-toned lace in Venice pattern is an effective feature of this frock. Sketched at the left.

Misses' Serge Frocks, Embroidered, $40

This is a really distinctive frock—simple, well-cut, with just the right embroidery motif to emphasize the straight, youthful lines. This frock is sketched at the right.

Fourth Floor, South.

Misses' Pink Satin Corsets

Very Specially Priced at $5

These daintily fine little corsets are certain to appeal to young girls. Every detail is in keeping, from the silk garters to the little finishing touches.
